Lower Granville

About seventy-five assembled at the residence of James F. Morrison on Tuesday evening (11th), the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage. All the surviving children were present—three sons and two daughters coming from the States specially to be present. Photographs of the five sons and three daughters were taken, and as they stood on the lawn their fine appearance was the subject of general remark. About $75 in cash—$60 of which was in gold coins—was presented to the esteemed couple besides a number of useful and handsome articles. Amongst the guests we noticed Mr. and Mrs. Charles Withers, of Granville Centre, Mrs. G. I. Lestery, of Digby, and Mrs. John MacWhinnie, of Port Ward, sisters of Mrs. Morrison, and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Porter. After a beautiful collation was served, the evening passed rapidly away in pleasant conversation and music. At a late hour the company dispersed wishing the esteemed couple many more years of happy married life. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison were born in this place upwards of seventy years ago and by their friendly disposition and straightforward christian life have won the esteem and confidence of the community who, one and all, congratulate them upon reaching their golden wedding anniversary.
