Young Men and Women are well trained each year to fill good positions and to win independence through the excellent courses given in our well-known school.

The Central Business College of Toronto

We employ from 18 to 20 teachers, and provide splendid equipment including 110 typewriting machines, and conduct a school which is first class in every respect. Because of this and of our ability to produce good results for our students, we solicit the patronage of every bright, energetic young person who desires a practical business education.
