

A negro child who loved her Bible very much was once asked, "When did you begin to love it?" to which she replied, "When I found my name written in it." The inquiry was then made, "What do you mean by finding your name written in it?" In reply she repeated the following beautiful text, "God commendeth His love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us;" adding, "I am a sinner: that is my name, so I know that Jesus died for me."
