WILLIAMS PIANOS

THE WILLIAMS PIANO CO., Limited, Oshawa, TORONTO, 8th Feb., 1904.
Dear Sirs,—I received on Friday last the piano selected by Miss Ross, and am delighted with its finish and its excellent tone as a musical instrument. In design it is most attractive, and merits all you have said about it in every respect. I had in my house for about 15 years one of your pianos, and have no doubt that the one which has replaced it will be found equally acceptable. You may safely assume that I would not have continued my patronage unless your instruments were satisfactory. Yours truly, GEO. W. ROSS.

HINT

A tired woman with nervous indigestion and a brain "too weary to think" was told by another who had been through the same experience that the whole trouble was lack of true rebuilding food.

She began on GRAPE-NUTS and in 10 days the Phosphates and nourishing elements in the famous food had restored her to strength completely, so that the nervous trouble disappeared entirely and the brain "could think" as hard and successfully as required.

"There's a reason" for GRAPE-NUTS.
