

A City of Homes

A feature of the February Canadian Magazine will be an illustrated article entitled "Toronto: a City of Homes," by Horace Boulton. This article will give the history of Toronto as a home-making place, from the time of the first settlement down to the present day, and will be splendidly illustrated. It will be the first of a series of articles dealing with outstanding aspects of some Canadian cities.

Other features of the February Number will be:—"The Mystery of Lincoln," by Robert E. Knowles; "Through the Wall," an unusually absorbing story, by Isabel Ecclestone Mackay; "Canadian Journalism," by Robson Black; "The Beauties of Dresden," by Charles T. Long.
