LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

[Received by this week's mail, and compiled expressly for the 'Canadian Illustrated News.']

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 21st, 1863.

Table with columns for Pork per Brl., Bacon per Cwt., Lard per Cwt., Cheese per Cwt., Butter per Cwt., and various grades of flour and wheat.

American Crude per ton, of 252 imperial gallons... Canadian do... Refined, burning, best quality per gallon...

We have no particular change to report either in the tone or in the general character of the provision trade this week.

Beef—There is a moderate demand, the sales being about 800 tierces, at irregular prices.

Pork is steady, and new cure is scarce and sells pretty well. Old is quite neglected.

There is a fair enquiry for nearly all descriptions of bacon, the low prices ruling having caused a good consumptive demand.

Cheese is dearer, and the fine qualities are readily saleable at firm prices. Stocks are unusually light.

The market for butter is depressed, and all descriptions are lower.

There is great apathy in our corn market, without much pressure to sell, but occasionally lower prices are conceded for wheat and flour.

Petroleum—The demand for crude continues quite nominal, and to effect a sale very low prices will have to be submitted to.
