CITY AND ELSEWHERE.

Mr. E. Motta, of Fargo, N. D., is renewing old acquaintances in the city.

VERY REV. DR. LANGEVIN, O. M. I., left on Monday for Qu'Appelle.

MISS F. VALOIS, sister of Mrs. W. Plaxton, of Fort street, left last week for Bay City, Michigan.

SEATTLE, Wash., furnishes a story of a cow that had been living for some time with a steel wire through her heart.

"All a woman asks is to be loved," says a gushing poet. Then all this stuff about her wanting new bonnets and jewellery must be a vile slander.

The next meeting of Branch 52 C. M. B. A., will be held in Mr. J. J. Golden's office, room D McIntyre block, on Wednesday evening, May 2nd, at 8 o'clock.

REMEMBER the conversation and ball to be given to-morrow evening at the drill hall, on Broadway street, in aid of the General and St. Boniface hospitals.

In Toronto a beautiful memorial window has just been placed in St. Paul's Catholic Church, in memory of the late William J. O'Connor, champion oarsman of America.

A Boston man was dreaming the other night that he had untold wealth, when he was suddenly awakened to find a burglar in the room making away with his last dollar.

My heart is very sad to night. I'mrest in the air. I cannot tell just which it is; Dyspepsia or despair.

JOHN COSTIGAN, Esq., Q.C., of Calgary, spent Sunday in the city with his brother, Mr. H. A. Costigan. He arrived from Ottawa on Sunday morning, and left for home on Monday.

Just now the Catholics of Buffalo are, with good reason, complaining that text books abounding in anti-Catholic misrepresentations and calumnies, are used in the night schools of that city which many Catholic children attend.

"Kind words never die." How bitterly does a man realize that truth when he sees all the kindest words that he ever used in his life glaring at him from his published letters in a breach of promise suit.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. W. H. Barry, proprietor of the Royal Oak hotel, who underwent an operation in the General hospital a few days since, is now progressing as favorably as could be expected.

FLAGS at half mast were floating for several days last week from most of the private residences and public buildings in St. Boniface, out of respect for Dr. Tache, of Ottawa, an account of whose death appeared in our last issue.

We have received from Keith & Co., seed merchants, of 477 Main street, their illustrated seed catalogue and gardeners' assistant. The book is a compendium of information to agriculturists, gardeners, florists, and will be sent free on application.

The semi-monthly meeting of St. Mary's Court No. 276, C. O. F., will be held in Unity hall, McIntyre block, on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The nomination and election of officers for the ensuing year will then take place, and all members are earnestly requested to be present.

A horse can draw on metal rails one and two-third times as much as on asphalt pavement, three and one-third times as much as on good Belgian blocks, five times as much as on good cobblestone, twenty times as much as on good earth road and forty times as much as on sand and one hundred times as much as on Winnipeg "mud." Experiment on gravel.

VERY REV. FATHER SOULIER, O. M. I., Superior General of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate is expected to arrive in Winnipeg on Saturday morning. He will be accompanied by the Very Rev. Dr. Langevin, Superior of the Order in the archdiocese, who goes to Fort William to meet the distinguished visitor.

All the members of the various Catholic societies in Winnipeg and St. Boniface, wishing to participate in the demonstration of welcome to be tendered Very Rev. Father Soulier, O. M. I., are requested to meet on Sunday afternoon next, at 3 p.m., sharp, at the east approach to St. Boniface bridge.

One of the most cherished possessions of a gentleman in Chicago is a brief autograph letter written by President Abraham Lincoln in October, 1861, which reads: "The lady—bearer of this—says she has two sons who want to work. Set them at it if possible! Wanting to work is so rare a merit that it should be encouraged."

ANY person wishing to secure a beautiful furnished room, would do well to apply at 277 McWilliam street west, at their earliest convenience.

The report that Dr. Edward McGlynn would be transferred to a Minnesota diocese is denied by Mgr. Satoli. "It is utterly untrue," he said. "The transfer has not even been contemplated."

MAYOR HOPKINS of Chicago, has taken another step in the direction of good government. He refuses to license the Garfield race and gambling track. Great influence was brought to bear in favor of the license.

BAIE ST. PAUL.—We beg to inform our valued contributor at Baie St. Paul that the article on "St. George" is unavoidably held over. It will appear next week, and we also beg to thank our correspondent for her many interesting and original contributions of late.

ANYONE calling himself a Catholic who is afraid to publicly profess his religion is no Catholic. Such a person would do better to openly confess himself outside of the church, because he lacks the moral courage to live up to the principles he pretends to believe. Outside the arena of religion, the standing of Catholics and Protestants is simply as citizens; some good, some bad.

DR. A. E. VERSAILLES was among the young gentlemen on whom the University of Manitoba recently conferred the degree of Doctor of Medicine. We congratulate the doctor on his accession to so honorable a profession and wish him every success. We understand that Dr. Versailles intends going to New York to take a post graduate course before he commences his practice in this city.

THE Very Rev. Father Accorsini occupied the pulpit at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday evening last, when he preached a most eloquent sermon to a large congregation, taking for his text the words, "Render an Account of Thy Stewardship." The sermon was listened to with the closest attention and evidently made a deep impression on all present. The choral music rendered by the choir during the service was very fine.

A HUNTER in Michigan who discovered a beehive recently and removed from it four barrels of honey in which there was no comb, had a remarkable experience, but it did not equal that of some men who were digging a well at Live Oak, Fla. and found about ten feet below the surface of the ground a tree that was petrified only on the outside. The trunk was split open and the inside was found to be filled with honey, which had been shut up in the tree for many years.

It is said that an A. P. A. organizer has appeared in Grand Forks, and all three of the papers there are roasting him and his proscription society to a brown turn. They say one plague is enough, and a repetition of the fever scourge would be preferable to this new visitation. We congratulate the citizens of Grand Forks on the intelligent stand they have taken in denouncing this hoodoo association and in giving it a wide berth. As for ourselves we would prefer witnessing another scourge of grasshoppers, as even they will do their work in broad daylight.

THE work of cleaning the streets of mud and rubbish is proceeding rapidly, and large numbers of men have been found temporary employment by the action of the city council. The weather, too, for the past few days has aided greatly the carrying on of the work, and it is not too much to hope that before long the streets will be in a fairly decent condition. A repetition of the disgraceful and insanitary condition of our streets during the past few weeks should be rendered impossible by prompt measures on the part of our City Fathers. A satisfactory system of drainage and good pavements would do more to "boom" Winnipeg than any of the exaggerated talk about the country which is indulged in by those who have the affairs of the province in their keeping.

THE Chicago Times is authority for the statement that two of Chicago's swell churches, one of the Episcopalian persuasion and the other of the Baptist, have organized the young men of their congregations into military companies. The guns and bayonets are owned by the churches and the companies are supposed to drill regularly. In speaking of the affair the Times says: "Since it can hardly be necessary for either the Baptist parson or the Episcopalian rector to round up his flock of a Sunday and hold it to its duty by a military guard, this spirit of ecclesiastical militarism would seem to be born of either a vain and foolish love for display or an even more foolish terror inspired by the vapors of A. P. A. and other know-nothing fanatics."

REGINA NOTES.

Chief of Police James Williams has resigned his position and left with his family for Cannington, where he has leased the hotel of the Moose Mountain Trading company.

Mr. Chas Johnson, of the Indian Department, has been removed to Balford, leaving another blank in the Church choir which it will be hard to fill. His wife and child will follow him in a few weeks.

The Catholic Austrians, numbering about 100, who form part of a very industrious Colony located within 15 miles North East of Regina are preparing to build a Church next Summer and are in hopes of meriting the regular attendance of a priest which they have not experienced since their arrival in the West.

Whilst losing Father Caron we never expected such good luck as to have Father Sinnott sent to us, a priest who some years ago left an impression on the more youthful minds of some of his present flock which has helped to place the grand old Guelph mission and its devoted Jesuit clergy on the highest plane of their dearest memories of old Ontario.

Father Sinnott has already visited the houses of nearly all the members of the congregation, and his sermons have been very much appreciated, so much so, that his last Sunday's announcement that in future vespers will be at 7.30, and an innovation in the way of a sermon during the same will be introduced, was received with very great pleasure by his hearers.

Our Lieut.-Governor and Premier have been to Ottawa and have returned and have been interviewed and reported and mis-reported—and misconstrued no doubt—all on the "school" question, whilst our local papers have been shifting and tacking so as to utilize every breeze which would help them to pander the dictates of what they place higher than conscience, viz "public opinion."

Mr. Williams was not dissatisfied with his position here, though a trying one, nor was he very anxious to go into hotel life, but it was discovered after his appointment that he was one those awful Catholics who had the courage to arrest and prosecute members of all classes of "society" law-breakers, and he was plainly given to understand that a council was elected this year which would demand his official scalp, so he wisely resigned, leaving a record which he has no reason to be ashamed of.

By far the most important—from a Catholic standpoint—happening of the last fortnight was the departure of Father Caron on his "round the world" trip and the arrival of his successor in the person of Father Sinnott. Father Caron during the three years he controlled our parish secured an enviable place in the affections of his people and his leaving was made the occasion for many demonstrations of regret and esteem; not the least of which was the presentation of a fairly round sum of money contributed by the parishioners.

Editor Stead of London, England who recently published the work entitled "If Christ Came to Chicago," pays his respects as follows to the A. P. A. The criticism is severe, but few there are who will say it is undeserved.

The second devil which to-day needs exorcism is one I did not expect to find in a civilized and progressive country. Of all folk-lore tales of Europe, the most horrible is that of the Vampire of the Levant. The A. P. A., that strange association for the protection of the American citizens, reminds me of the restless Vampire of southeastern Europe. No Popery fanaticism died fifty years ago in England. We imagined it dead and buried. Here in Western America we find the same old demon, with its familiar hoofs and horns and tail, scaring the old women of both sexes with bogey of impending massacre and of the domination of sixty millions by six. Ridicule ought to be the best means for exorcising this belated survival of antiquated bigotry.

THE LATE DR. TACHE.

The Life of the Brother of His Grace Archbishop Tache.

Dr. Tache, of Ottawa, who died on the 15th inst., had been an invalid for the last eleven years, having fallen while coming down the steps at the Cathedral at Ottawa fracturing a limb, from the effects of which accident he never entirely recovered. During the last few months he was troubled with some internal disease, but no one expected that it would terminate so suddenly in his demise. Dr. Tache was born in Kamouraska, Que., on 24th Dec. He was the elder son of Charles Tache, captain of the ship Voltigeurs, in the war of 1812. Dr. Tache took a medical course and graduated with honors at university of Quebec in 1844. He settled in Rimouski and carried on his practice as a physician there until 1856. He represented Rimouski for ten years in the Canadian legislature, and resigned to go to Quebec to take charge of Le Courier du Canada newspaper. He filled this position with marked success and made the paper a power in the country. In 1855, while he was member for Rimouski he was appointed commissioner to the Paris exhibition, and so ably did he fill the position he was made a knight of the legion of honor.

In 1856 Sir George Cartier asked him to accept the position as member of the board of inspection of asylums prisons and other public establishments, of which he became chairman shortly after his appointment to the board. In 1864 he was appointed deputy minister of agriculture, holding the position until his superannuation a few years ago. During his author and writer. Besides being an extensive contributor to the press and the author of various series of lively number of valuable works. Mr. Lareau, in his history of Canadian literature, says, "The author has attached his name to works which will live as long as the French language is spoken along the shores of St. Lawrence." As deputy minister of agriculture he was a most valuable assistant to the government. He was the framer of the present quarantine, patent trade marks and copyright laws, which have been favorably commented on by foreign governments and embodied in their statutes. His last administrative and scientific production was the work on Canadian statistics known as "The Census." It involved an immense amount of labor, comprising five volumes. Dr. Tache was married in 1847 to Miss Francoise Lepage, of Rimouski. They had six children, three of whom still survive, two sons and a daughter. He had two brothers, Louis Tache, notary and sheriff of St. Hyacinthe district, and Archbishop Tache, of St. Boniface. He was a nephew of the late Sir Etienne Tache, at one time premier of Canada. Dr. Tache in his private life was very benevolent, distributing charity with a lavish hand and yet in a quiet unostentatious manner. He was one of the principal benefactors of the orphanage of St. Joseph, and his kind words of encouragement will be missed by many.
