

PRINTED BY KIND PERMISSION OF LT-COL. W. F. GILSON, OFFICER COMMANDING 7th CANADIAN INFANTRY BATTALION

EDITOR
CAPT. W. F. ORR

CENSORED BY CHIEF CENSOR

NEWS EDITOR.
Sgt J. W. CAMPBELL.

N^o 21 BRITISH EX. FORCE, FRANCE, JAN. 25 1917 Price 1d.

Saturday, Dec 30

1st B. C. MARINES.

Saturday, Dec. 30.

Direction ; Chief Petty Officer POLLARD.

Scenic effects by FLOOD & L'EAU

Grand Regatta and Aquatic Sports.

The « CHIMES » says : « An unrehearsed WATER PAGEANT of the most spectacular sort »
The DAILY « WHALE » says : « An everflowing success ».

Side Show.

RAFTS !

Side Show.

Daring rescues of DISTRESSED DAMSELS
by POLICE DETAIL
& Bo'sun MOORE.

RAFTS !!

Medical Detail Mud-Larks.

RAFTS !!!

by Petty Officer

The Q. M. STORES &
The GUM-BOOT GANG.

DONALSON

& The POULTICE WALLOPERS

JOY RIDES !

JOY RIDES !!

JOY RIDES !!!

For OLD and YOUNG.

For SOLDIER and CIVILIAN

Courtesy of the C. R. E. PONTOON DETAIL.

EXPERT OARSMEN.

BRAVE BOAT-HOOK ARTISTS.

POLISHED POLERS.

A SWIMMING SUCCESS.

Lieut. GUILLE in « A STORMY NIGHT IN THE CHANNEL ».

LOG RIDING.

RIVER DRIVING.

DANGEROUS and DIFFICULT.

by Lieut. BARTON,

See the GREAT BARREL ROLLING ACT.

Capt. NATION & the FLOATING CASK

COMEDY

COMEDY

COMEDY

by the PAYMASTER & P. O. BROOKS'

P. O. BROOKS — broke and in gum-boots — detailed to assist the P. M. to dry Lund — carries him on his back — pauses in the middle of the swirling stream and asks : « How's chances for a little advance of forty francs ? »

TRAGEDY

TRAGEDY

TRAGEDY

GRAND SPECTACULAR WATER DRAMA.

« THE JOHNSTOWN FLOOD ».

B. C. MARINES.

assisted by

The NATIVES.

Smiling morn — first warning trickle — the stream increases — anxiety of the natives — « To the hills for your lives ».