One of these days brought to its close a four-day session of the Committee of Ministers of Economics of the Central American Republics. They had adopted resolutions regarding future technical assistance to their countries, for improving transportation, creating a school of public administration to provide trained civil servants for their administration to providing a uniform system of customs governments, and providing a uniform system of customs momenclature. They had also established a committee to study unification of their customs procedure - something for which any American exporter to Central America or any American any American exporter to another of those republics should traveller passing from one to another of those republics should give three rousing cheers. Before adjourning the committee give three rousing cheers. Before adjourning the committee changed its name to the Committee on Economic Cooperation in changed its name to the Committee on Economic Cooperation in the Central American Isthmus. If it lives up to its new name, this body which the U.N. has fostered will bring a genuine advance in this field of world trade.

Throughout one of these days various U.N. delegations and members of the Secretariat held a briefing conference for 230 United States army officers from the War College at Carlisle Barracks, giving them information on the world Carlisle Barracks, giving them information on the world picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the international Picture as it looked from the vantage point of the va

There is a condensed list of some of the things that were happening at the U.N. or under its auspices, during just three typical days. Probably not a single one of these just three typical days. Probably not a single one of these just three typical days. Probably not a single one of these just three typical days. Probably not a single one of these just three typical days. But every one was mentioned in the press or over the radio. But every one was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance, and this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance, and this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance, and this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the service of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of these just of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of genuine importance. And this takes no account of the was of g

If you look at a chart of the United Nations organization you will see boxes which designate 24 subsidiary organization you will see boxes which designate 24 subsidiary and affiliated bodies. These work with the third major organ and affiliated bodies. These work with the Security Council, right along with the General Assembly and the Security Council, right along with the General Assembly and the Security Council, and it is possible that as the years pass it may become and it is possible that as the years pass it may become and it is possible that as the years pass it may become world than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the adaptive than either of the others in securing the sort of more helpful than either of the agencial than the security council, where the security council, where the security council, where the security council, and the security coun

But in that part of the world where a billion people never have enough to eat, where the average yearly income is under $50, where a child at birth has scarcely income is under $50, where a child at birth had if it had one-third the life expectancy it would have had if it had one-third the life expectancy in the United States, where been lucky enough to be born in the United States, where preventable diseases still rage almost unchecked and where preventable diseases still rage almost unchecked and where preventable diseases still rage almost unchecked and where illiteracy still condemns most of the population to poverty illiteracy still condemns most of the population to poverty and hopelessness - in such places the U.N. "alphabet soup" and hopelessness - in such places the brightest promise on is no joke. On the contrary, it is the brightest promise on the horizon for the under-developed nations and their people.