The Department of External Affairs announces that the first meeting of the Joint United States-Canada Industrial Mobilization Planning Committee was held in Washington today (June 1). The meeting was primarily limited to a discussion of the organizational pattern to be followed in the light of the exchange of notes in Ottawa on April 12 that established the Committee. Carpenter, Chairman, Munitions Board, United States. The function of the new committee is to exchange information and co-ordinate the views of the two Governments in connection with planning for industrial mobilization in the event of an emergency.

There was general agreement on the following procedural points pertaining to the Committee's operations:

- (c) That meetings in Canada would be chaired by the Canadian chairman and that meetings in the U.S. would be chaired by the U.S. chairman;
- (d) That meetings should be held at least semi-annually with the place of meeting alternating between the two countries;
- (e) That a single executive from each country responsible to his national chairman should be designated. Mr. Daniel Cox Fahey Jr. of the National Security Resources Board and Col. W. Gordon Denney of the Industrial Defence Board were so named to exercise the following functions:
