

JULES LEGER

Mr. Léger was born in St. Anicet, Quebec on April 4, 1913. He graduated from the University of Montreal and studied at the Sorbonne in Paris. He was editor of "Le Droit", Ottawa, in 1938-39 and later became an Assistant Press Censor.

He joined the Department of External Affairs in 1940 and has served abroad in Canadian diplomatic Missions in Santiago and London. He was appointed Assistant Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs in 1951 and in 1953 became Ambassador to Mexico. He returned to Ottawa in 1954 on appointment as Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs. In 1958 he was appointed Ambassador and Permanent Representative of Canada to the North Atlantic Council and the Organization for European Economic Co-operation in Paris.

Mr. Leger is married and has two children.

.....

GEORGE IGNATIEFF

Mr. Ignatieff was born in St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1913. He is a graduate of the University of Toronto, went to Oxford as a Rhodes Scholar in 1938, and later attended the University of London.

He joined the Department of External Affairs in 1940 and has served abroad in London, Washington and with the Canadian Permanent Delegation to the United Nations, New York. He attended the Imperial Defence College in London in 1953 and was appointed Ambassador to Yugoslavia in 1957. Mr. Ignatieff became Deputy High Commissioner in London in 1959 and the following year assumed his present position as an Assistant Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs.

Mr. Ignatieff is married and has two children.

.....

PAUL TREMBLAY

Mr. Tremblay was born in Chicoutimi, Quebec on July 6, 1914. A graduate of the University of Montreal, he later studied at McGill University and at George Washington University. He was called to the Bar of the Province of Quebec and practiced law in Montreal.

In 1940 Mr. Tremblay joined the Department of External Affairs. He has served abroad in Canadian diplomatic Missions in Washington, Santiago, The Hague and with the Canadian Delegation to the North Atlantic Council and the Organization for the European Economic Council in Paris. He was appointed Ambassador to Chile in 1959 and in 1961 was named as an Alternate Representative on the Canadian Delegation to the Sixteenth Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations.

Mr. Tremblay is married and has three children.