

same time, we can draw attention to the alternatives for moving northern oil to southern markets and insist that all the options be kept open for careful examination. On the whole, I would expect energy problems to continue giving Canada and the United States a fair number of headaches in the seventies, but I foresee no problem which will not respond to the exercise of patience and imagination.

Finally, what of some of the political issues over which there have been differences in the past? One of the most important still exists, the war in Vietnam. The Government has expressed its serious concern over the renewed violence there. We have said that Canadians want to see this war ended soon by negotiation, and that they will be relieved when the United States has been able to withdraw from Vietnam. For our purposes this
