Mr. Speaker: I declare the amendment to the amendment to be the main motion lost.

Mr. Winch: I was paired, Mr. Speaker, with the Minister of Citizenship and Immigration (Mr. Pickersgil). Had I been able to vote I would have voted in favour of the subamendment.

Mr. Speaker: The question now is on the amendment to the main motion. Those who are in favour to the amendment to the main motion will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Speaker: Those who are opposed to the amendment to the main motion will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

Mr. Speaker: Call in the members. I understand that the whips are indicating that, for the purpose of this division, their members have been called in.

The house divided on the amendment (Mr. Diefenbaker) which was negated on the following division:
