

is that the fines involved have been increased in order to bring them into line with the present level of prices.

Regarding the second part of the honourable senator's question, I am sure the officials who will appear when the bill is in committee will be able to clarify the legal interpretation of this clause.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Choquette, debate adjourned.

The Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m.