Gratuities to be made to European Officers in respect of their having served in the Kenya Colony and Protectorate, the Uganda, Somaliland, Nyasaland, and Zanzibar Protectorates, and the Tanganyika Territory.

1. The scale of pensions and gratuities shall be that now in force in His Majesty's Consular Service in China, Japan, and other countries classed for the purpose as unhealthy as laid down in 39 and 40 Vict., cap. 53, 11th August, 1876, which provides as follows:—

“ Act of Parliament to make further provision respecting the Superannuation Allowance to be granted to Civil Servants serving in unhealthy Climates.

“ Unhealthy Places.

“ 1. The Treasury may from time to time by order declare that any country or place therein named shall be deemed, and the same shall thereupon be deemed, for the purposes of ‘ The Superannuation Act, 1859 ’ . . . . . and this Act, to be an unhealthy place.

“ The Treasury may from time to time by order revoke or vary an order previously made under this section, but the amount of superannuation, compensation, gratuity or other allowance to be granted to any person serving, before the date of the order of revocation or alteration, in the unhealthy place affected thereby shall be the same as if it had not been made.

“ 2. For the purpose of reckoning the amount of any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance to be granted under ‘ The Superannuation Act, 1859,’* to a person who has served in an established

* Note.—Section 2 of “ The Superannuation Act, 1859,” provides as follows:—

“ 2. Subject to the exceptions and provisions hereinafter contained, the superannuation allowance to be granted after the commencement of this Act to persons who shall have served in an established capacity in the permanent Civil Service of the State, whether their remuneration be computed by day pay, weekly wages, or annual salary, and for whom provision shall not otherwise have been made by Act of Parliament, or who may not be specially excepted by the authority of Parliament, shall be as follows: (that is to say)—

“ To any person who shall have served ten years and upwards and under eleven years, an annual allowance of 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office.

“ For eleven years, and under twelve years, an annual allowance of 11-60ths of such salary and emoluments.

“ And in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of 1-60th in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of forty years, when the annual allowance of 40-60ths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond 40 years.

“ Provided always, that if any question should arise in any Department of the public service as to the claim of any person or class of persons for superannuation under this clause, it shall be referred to the Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision shall be final.”
