

- Trolling, a favourite manner of fishing in the lakes, i. 182.
 Trout, the common brook, i. 177.
 Tunkers, enjoy a conditional exemption from militia duties, i. 234, 619, note.
 Tyranny of Poor Laws exemplified, a pamphlet by Mr. Gourlay, Gen. Int. cxvi.

U. V.

- U. E. loyalists, persons adhering to the royal cause in the American war, rewarded with land to themselves, and to their children on attaining the age of twenty-one years, i. 13. Their rights violated by the government of the province, ii. 456, note.
 Vaudreuil, seigniory of, i. 589.
 Vincent, General, attempts to prevent the landing of the American troops at Fort George, i. 81. Is compelled to retreat, 82. Retires to Burlington on the arrival of a part of General Harrison's army, ibid. Surprises the American army in their camp during the night, and takes Generals Winder and Chandler prisoners, 84.

W.

- Wages of blacksmiths, masons, and carpenters, i. 277, 281, 286, 292, 312, 318, 326, 330, 333, 338, 341, 343, 345, 358, 366, 370, 376, 398, 410, 423, 442, 447, 453, 467, 473, 483, 490, 499, 504, 512, 560, 622.
 — of common labourers, and of women servants, i. 277, 282, 286, 292, 368, 370, 372, 390, 413, 439, 447, 449, 453, 467, 493, 499, 504, 518, 560.
 Wainfleet, township report of, i. 449.
 Wakefield, Mr. Extract from his Statistical Account of Ireland, Gen. Int. lxxxix. note.
 Walpole, township report of, i. 320.
 Walsingham, township report of, i. 327.