J.A. WEBSTER COMPLAINS

Attorney-General Refuses a Ruling on Operation of Sunday Cars.

Central steam-heating stations, as well as central distributing stations for electric lighting and power, may in a few years be an accomplished fact in the City of Toronto.

At the board of control meeting yesterday J. A. Webster of the District Steam Heating Company, Toronto, Ontario, New York, asked that a by-law be passed allowing his company to lay the main.

Webster again. J. A. Webster, the fruit grower, appeared at the city hall with a list of grievances. He objected to the rent charged, and wanted to sell apples when he only rented the space in the St. Lawrence market as a storeroom.

Property Commissioner Chisholm has been requested to prepare a room near Dr. Hastings' private office to be utilized as a women's police court.

The attorney-general has refused to give out a ruling affecting the operation of civic cars on Sunday. Under the existing circumstances legislation for such operation will have to be sought.

Continuing To-day and Concluding To-morrow

ANNUAL SALE SUITS AND OVERCOATS

To-day and to-morrow are the final two days of the most important sale of the season. In fact, a Broderick sale is the most important of any season. The margin of superiority was never quite so apparent as at this sale.

The reason for this is that a Broderick sale is not a makeshift offering of odds and ends, but merely the application of a sale price to a regular stock which has been kept at the fullest possible range right up to the eleventh hour.

Overcoats—Regularly $60.00 to $45.00 Sale Price $25.00

Suits—Regularly $45.00 to $25.00 Sale Price $22.50
