The grounds extend from Mount Pleater road to Garland avenue, a distance almost 900 feet, and the northwest ner contains an exquisite bit of forest d upon an elevation, ideal for camp-

The boys of the club will do all their own electric wiring under the superintendence of a "gentleman steeplejack," who is connected with the hydro-electric. Starting from the bottom of the ravine they will place colored lights all the way up the hillside to the top of the highest pine. In addition to being decorative these lights will serve as a landmark for members during the winter months. The toboggan slide, which is of thrilling steepness, will also be lighted with colored electric bulbs.

The public will be invited this winter to skate on what will be the most beautifully situated open-air rink in the city. Around a regulation sized hockey rink will be a wide circular skating course which will be extended from year to

NEW MINIATURE RANGE IN HUMBER VALLEY

Practice - Given Instruction in Map Work.

About 30 members of the Arts and Science Rifle Club and Mounted Corps spent a very instructive and interesting afternoon on Saturday in the vicinity of the Old Mill Inn in the Humber Valley near the Bloor street intersection. A new miniature shooting range has been installed, and the working of the targets proved eminently satisfactory. This range was used for the first time on Saturday, when about 20 of the members practised with the old black powder cartridges, a supply of smokeless ammunition being unobtainable.

Engaged in Map Work.

But where is the money to come from which will make it certain that the regional bank can finance the business of its district by rediscounting prime ommercial paper offered to it for discount by the member banks? It must happe commercial paper offered to it for discount by the member banks? It must happen that, at certain seasons of the year, in various districts there is great necessity for expansion of the currency, times when men of good credit and business ability must have ready money. The Federal Reserve Act deals with this by providing:

Federal reserve notes to be issued at the discretion of the Federal Reserve Board for the purpose of making advances to federal reserve banks thru federal reserve agents, as hereinafter set forth, and for no other purpose, are hereby authorized. The said notes shall be obligations of the United States and shall be receivable by all national and member banks and federal reserve banks, and for all taxes, customs and other public dues. They shall be redeemed in gold on demand of the Treasury Department of the United States, in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, or in gold or lawful money at any federal reserve bank.

3. Each federal reserve, or regional bank, shall establish branch banks. Each branch bank is to have seven directors; four to be named by the parent bank, and three by the federal board of control.

So much for organization—the skeleton or framework of the system. But in passing it may be observed that the national banks have very generally come into districts. The Federal Reserve Board has been appointed and qualified and regional banks are being established at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cleve'and, Richmond, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Dallas, and San Franches will be established without delay.

Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P., proposes a similar system for Canada, with an issue of $500,000,000 Dominion notes based on $125,000,000 gold reserve. This is unassailable from a gold-standard standpoint, few countries having a much as 25 per cent. gold behind their currency, and none ever need much for redemption requirements. The inauguration of this plan w not only establish a great and permanent prosperity, enabling the people work off their indebtedness, but it would greatly enlarge the field for less mate banking upon a basis of safety that has never been approached

Canada.

It would be well for the bankers of Canada to follow the example of those in the United States in admitting that the antiquated and defective system of half a century ago has run its course. They should join forces with Mr. Maclean and bring the new system into operation with the least possible delay. It is their opportunity to make permanent friends of a people who are not feeling very friendly just now.

Speaking about a week ago at Elizabeth, N.J., Mr. Charles A. Conent, a recognized financial authority and author of "Modern Banks of Issue," declared that the Federal Reserve Act had already rendered important services in the crisis caused by the outbreak of the war in Europe. The new law provides one of the essential conditions of a sound banking systm—a moral leadership possessing legal authority. Heretofore in important crisises there has been no recognized authority to take the lead in organizing defensive measures for the protection of the gold stock, provision for an adequate currency and the maintenance of public confidence.

Hydro Electric Up the Don Read
The Hydro Electric Commission's line up the Don road was put into service Saturday evening, the first house lit up being that of Mr. David Duncan. Mr. W. F. The Davies farm at Thorn cliffe hope to turn on over a hundred builts in their horse stables before the end of the week. The new service ties on to the city cables at the corner of Cronyn avenue and Leslie street, a quarter of a mile north of Danforth avenue. The most of the farms up the Don road will have an electric supply in a few days.

OAKWOOD

The patriotic concert held under the auspices of the McNab Red Cross League in Oakwood Assembly Hall, St Clair avenue, on Saturday evening, was a decided success. The stage was tastefully decorated with plants, thru the kindness of F. H. Miller & Sons, and there was a profuse display of bunting.

The artists contributing to the program included a quartet from the band of the 48th Highlanders, Mrs. Davis, Margris Munro, Pipe Major Fraser, Henry Milne and the choir of McMurrich school. Dr. W. Gutzeit was the accompanist.
