

Greeting and Foreword

TO THE REGISTERED DELEGATES

GOLDEN JUBILEE CONVENTION. GREETINGS:—

WE rejoice with you that we are permitted to enjoy together this "Feast of good things." It is an occasion that can come but once in a life time. It is to all of us a period of retrospection. A backward look brings conflict of feeling. "What hath God wrought" contends for first place with, "What God might have wrought if we had yielded more to the Christ spirit—" "I am among you as one that serveth." (Luke 22-27.)

A good banquet is of no value and tame indeed apart from the welcomed guests. Enjoy this to your heart's content, be social, mix well and make new friends. Remember "Iron sharpeneth iron: so man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend." (Prov. 27:17 r.v.). We pray you may go not hence when we arise without a strong conviction and a firm resolution that a new day has dawned in your life and service.

Our word to you for the future is, seek, not to possess Jesus Christ, but diligently to let Him possess you. Who is senior partner?

In "The Kingdom vision" Yours.

THE COMMITTEE.
