

“ S e q u i l ”

coffy. after dinner we went back to the offise and a man come in and asked who was mister Shute and father said he was and the man said are you the man witch put a old man on the trane at the depo and father said yes and i thought the man wood give father a hundred dolars or a gold wach and father looked as if he thought the man wood say noble man you have saved my fathers life, but the man looked mad and said well sir you did a prety smart thing to throw a helpless old man on to the rong trane and send him of 100 miles away from home and scart all his peeple most to deth becaus they thought he was merdered and cost him 3 dolars to telegraf and stay all nite and if you dont know more then that you had beter soke your head. father he said what was the old fool trying to get on the trane for if he didnt want to go on it, and the man he said he was trying to get of the trane and you woodent let him and the man holered so loud that evrybody