obstruct any public highway or road; or if any person or persons shall maliciously, wilfully or negligently obstruct any public Highway or Road, by depositing therein any saw logs, timber or lumber of any kind, or any fuel wood, or any other matter or thing which shall in any wise hinder or obstruct, or render unsafe or difficult of passage, the said highway, such person or persons shall be liable to a fine of not less than five shillings nor more than five pounds; and for every day such obstruction as aforesaid, shall be left in the highway, after its removal shall have been ordered by the Pathmaster of the division wherein the same shall be, (whose duty it shall be to order such removal to be made,) the further sum of two shillings and sixpence, to be collected as aforesaid; and that when any public highway in the Township is hindered, obstructed or rendered difficult of passage, by depositing therein any such logs or timber of any kind, or any other matter or thing whatsoever on the said highway, such person or persons so offending, shall not only be liable to all fines and penalties aforesaid, but if the Pathmaster fail in finding out or proving the owner of said logs, timber or lumber of any kind, or any other matter or thing as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Pathmaster to give the inhabitants of such division at least eight days notice, in writing, in three or more public places within said division, and if no owner can be found, that the Pathmaster be directed and he is hereby authorized to appoint a day of sale, and sell all such logs, timber, lumber, &c., as aforesaid, to the highest bidder; and, after defraying all expenses that the Pathmaster shall lay out the balance, if any, on the improvement of the Highways within his division.

Sec. 14.—And be it enacted, That the Pathmasters of the several divisions in the Township shall severally make out a true list or account of all persons within their respective divisions, who are liable to work on the highways, and of the labor done or unperformed by any person liable to perform or compound for the same, and also of all monies that may come into his hands by virtue of his office, and of the expenditure or payment of the same, which list and account shall be subscribed by such Pathmaster, and delivered to the Township Clerk on or before the twentieth day of September in each and every year, to be laid before the Council at its first session thereafter; and every Pathmaster who shall neglect to render his account as aforesaid, shall be liable to the same penalty, to be recovered in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided, to be recovered from persons neglecting or refusing to take the oath of office.

Sec. 15.—And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Township Clerk to obtain a list of persons from the Assessment Roll, liable to perform statuto labor, and affix the number of days each person is liable to work, which list the Pathmasters for the several divisions, shall have authority to take a copy or extracts from, for the purpose of completing their road or division list.
