

partially occupied or used as an office, other than a duly registered physician's, dentist's, or veterinary surgeon's office, or as a shop or as a place of business, or as a factory, or as a workshop, or as a warehouse, or as a club-house or club-room, public hall or hall of any society or order, or as a boarding-house, or as a lodging-house where there are more than three lodgers other than the members of the family, or as a livery-stable, or as an inn, tavern, hotel, or other house or place of public entertainment, or any house or building the rooms or apartments in which are leased to different persons, or any buildings or house mentioned in section 38 of this Act, or any house or building where for money or other valuable consideration any goods or chattels are kept for sale or sold or meals given or lodging provided; nor shall it include or mean to be construed to include or mean any house or building connected by a doorway or covered passage or way of internal communication, except by telephone, with any place where liquor is authorized to be sold under this Act, or with any office except a duly registered physician's, dentist's, or veterinary surgeon's office, or with any place of business, factory, warehouse, workshop, club-house, club-room, hall before mentioned, boarding-house or lodging-house as aforesaid, livery-stable, inn, tavern, hotel, or other house or place of public entertainment or resort, or with any house or building mentioned in section 38 of this Act:

- (b.) Notwithstanding the above restrictions, "private dwelling-house" shall include also a suite of rooms in an apartment block, in a city, separated and closed off by walls from all other rooms in such block, and without any door or opening whereby communication may be had with any other room save doors opening into a main or common hall leading, with or without stairs, into a street or lane, and in which suite there are facilities for cooking and a family actually residing, cooking, sleeping, and taking their meals.

WHAT IS A DWELLING HOUSE?

Section 3. This section defines what is meant by a dwelling house in this Act. The reason is that by Section 51 which will be discussed again later, any person may import liquor without the license and a penalty of $1000.
