

Morning Prayer.

WE humbly beseech Thee, most merciful God, that by Thy Grace, Thou wouldst keep alive in us, who have this day presumed to implore such great blessings at thy hands, a constant sense of thy presence, and of our dependence upon thee. Suffer us not to return to our former sinfulness and disobedience, nor again to yield to those evil passions and desires, which have brought down thy just judgments upon us: But save us, O God; save us, not only from our worldly, but also from our spiritual enemies; and most especially save us from ourselves, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Prayer for the Legislature, and the following Thanksgiving.

O GOD, our Heavenly Father, who of Thy bountiful goodness, hast given the blessing of a most abundant harvest to the Parent Kingdom; and hast lately crowned, with unexampled victories, the Arms of our Sovereign, and of His Allies; accept, we beseech Thee, the praises and thanksgivings of a favored people. And of Thy great mercy, O God, teach us so to abound, and so to rejoice, that we forget not, by reason of our many frailties, the source from which these blessings flow. Thou hast looked down upon us with tenderness, with compassion, and with succour. Thou hast listened to our supplications; supplied our wants; and assisted our arms.—Dispose us, evermore, to elevate our hearts and minds unto Thee, in pious and grateful remembrance of these Thy great blessings, and of all other Thy manifold mercies, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the General Thanksgiving.—To the end of Morning Prayer as usual.
