DEPOSITORS GET DIVIDEND. Wrecked Stensland Bank Pays Out

Chicago, Aug. 26.-More than $150, 000 was paid to 'depositors in the Stensland Bank yesterday on the 20 per cent, dividend, first disbursements of which were made Friday. About 1600 persons passed thru the doors. To-day every employe will be at the bank balancing the accounts and pre-paring for a new rush to-morrow morning.

The Bell Playerpiano affords music in the house when desired, and this whether anyone can play or not.

This instrument can be played by hand in the regular way.

It can be converted instantly into a playerpiano for playing with music-roll and treadles by a non-player.

It is TWO PIANOS IN ONE.

It is certainly a marvellous invention, and needs only to be seen to be appreciated.

mpressive Rites Attended Obsequies of the Distinguished Churchman on Saturday.

Impressive funeral services were d on Saturday afternoon in St. Luke's Church for the late rector, Ven. Archdeacon Langtry. Their conluct was in charge of Bishop Sweatman, assisted by Archdeacon Sweeny, man, assisted by Archdeacon Sweeny, Provost Macklem and Rev. Prof. C. A. Brodie Brockwell of Nova Scotla. At 2.30 o'clock, the hour set for the services to begin, the church was filled with mourning members of the congregation. There attended also a number of clergymen from within and outside the city, including Rev. Scott Howard (Newcastle), Prof. Clark, Rev. T. G. Wallace (Oakville), Rev. Thomas Patterson (Deer Park), Canon Macnab, Rev. T. G. Morley (Bradford), Rev. J. Fidler (Grace Church), Rev. R. P. Nevitt (St. Catharines), Rev. A. J. Broughall, Rev. J. S. Broughall, Rev. W. Broughall, Rev. A. C. Heathcote (Winnipeg), Rev. C. A. Seager (St. Cyprian's), Rev. W. H. Clark (St. Barnabas), and Rev. Mr. Roberts (St. Jude's).

The remains, which had been lying in state since Friday evening, reclined in a plain casket, covered with a violet pall, surmounted by a cross woven in white silk, in the chancel of the church, which was draped with sable and purple vestments of mourning. The floral offerings, which were many and beautiful, adorned the chancel rail and formed a background to the altar. Among the tributes was a large cross from the congregation, a St. Andrew's Brotherhood cross from the council of Bishop Strachan School and wreath from the pupils, wreath from the A. O. U. W., and a cross from St. Luke's branch of the Guild of St. John the Evangelist.

The services, which were full choral opened with the processional hymn, Provost Macklem and Rev. Prof. C.

of St. John the Evangelist.

The services, which were full choral, opened with the processional hymn, "For all the Saints." Bishop Sweatman followed with committal prayers, and Archdeacon Sweeny with the opening sentencts of the ritual. Provost Macklem read the impressive chapter from 15th Corrinthians in the midst of a tense slience, and with the pronouncement of Bishop Sweatman of the concluding prayer, the solemn, white-robed procession moved down the aisle, while the organ glided softly into the "Dead March."

The committal services at St. James' Cemetery were conducted by Bishop Sweatman in the presence of a large gathering of members of the congregation and warm personal friends of deceased. The pall-bearers were: Rev. Canon Baldwin, Rev. Canon Ingles, Rev. Canon Cody, Rev. Dr. Pearson, Rev. W. E. Cooper and Mr. Clarkson Jones.

It might at some future time be in the minds of the congregation to erect a memorial to the late rector. His church, his life's work, and the memory of him were his greatest memorials. The duty of St. Luke's was to take up the mantle where their late beloved rector laid it down, and go on to more glorious results."

Impressive Ceremony on Sackville St. - Vicar-General McCann Performs Ceremony.

dence was laid yesterday afternoon, Vicar-General McCann officiating. The event attracted a gathering of several hundred and proceedings from their opening with the processional "Benedictus" to the rendering by the sanctuary and St. Paul's choir of the concluding "Magnificat," following upon an eloquent discourse by the choir of the concluding 'Magnificat, Iollowing upon an eloquent discourse by the vicar-general.

The building now in course of construction, the foundation and basement having been laid, is designed to receive foundling children almost from the time of birth to the age of four years. It is expected that it will be completed in four months, at a cost of about $46,000. Situated in the rear of the parent institution, it will be 114 feet in length by 80 feet wide, will be three storeys in height, in addition to the basement, and will be constructed of white brick, faced with stone.

The procession, headed by the surpliced choir boys of 8t. Paul's Church, and the sanctuary choristers, approached the tented platform, where the extremondes were to proceed, shortly after 4 p.m. In the rear was Vicar-General McCann, supported by Rev. Fathers Hand, Rohleder, McCabe, Doberty, Minehan, O'Donnell and LaMarche. Among the invited guests in atterdance were A. C. Macdonell, M.P., Controllers Hubbard and Shaw, Ald. Harrison, Ald. Vaughan and D. N. Defoe, Following the fendering of the psalm 'Eveni Creator Spiritus,' came the ceremony of blessing the building, the vicar-general, alternated by priests, proceeding to sprinkle the wails at intervals with holy water contained in a crizur.

After the rendering of appropriate psalms the formal ceremony of laying the cornerstone was performed by the vicar-general, a silver trowel being used. He then entered upon an eloquent address in which he extolled the virtue of charity. Faith was a divine virtue, opening up a view of the invisible world; hope was also a divine virtue giving strength and firmness of purpose to him who possessed it, but charity was a still greater endowment. The church impressed on the people the necessity for alms, deeds and works of charity, and in the House of Providence and kindred institutions would be found the most precious treasures of the church in Toronto. Opened in 1859 to the needy and poor, its resources had increased so that the Sunnyside institution fo

God.

The church should declare that unborn infants had rights and that to deprive them of these rights was a great crime against God and man, said the vicar-general. The undertaking, he added, would proclaim the great Catholic charity of the church and a monument to the great charitable heart of the people of Toronto.
