TRADE MARK FRAUD

Canadian Concern Used a Sheffield Stamp and Is Fined by Court.

Welland, Ont., June 18. - The charge against the Ontario Silver Company of Niagara Falls of fraud in the improper use of a Sheffield, England trade mark, was heard before Judge Wells in the sessions here today. The charge of conspiracy against Manager Clark was dropped, but four indictments of fraud were preferred against the company.

The company made no defense. J. W. Nesbitt, K. C., of Hamilton, who appeared for the company, pleaded for leniency, and blamed a former owner of the company for the trouble. The company was convicted by Judge Willis, after a scathing address, and a fine of $600 was imposed. LONDONERS ELECTED
