CITY GARDENERS ARE ALREADY REPORTING ON PRODUCE TAKEN FROM THEIR VACANT LAND PLOTS

Chairman of City Committee QUERIES REGARDING Illustrates Model Form of Submitting Returns.

garden reports, asked for by the Gov-ernment, Ald. S. R. Manness, chairman the city's high cost of living com mittee, has given out for publication what he classifies as a model report. All workers of vacant land gardens, both those supervised by the city and those on private land, have been isked to send in their reports to Ald. Manness or City Clerk S. Baker. The Government is asking for full returns from all cities in order that a computation of the results of the "greater production campaign" may be secured. "We want to know what all gardens produced in order that we may send in a complete report to the Government departments, both provincial and federal. All gardeners who worked vacant land this year have been asked to send in their reports," said Ald. Manness. "We have already had some and we want them all."

The report which Ald. Manness uses for a model follows:

ther information than that conveyed in the report proper.

The worker of the plot wrote:

"The early wet season hurt carly planted potatoes and corn. The potatoes planted May 19 did not yield nearly as much as those planted three weeks later, though the later ones were in the poorest soil. The heavy growth of trees at the back end of the garden keeps the sunshine from there and the returns there are poor. We had excellent success with our onions and vegetable marrow squash.

The scene showing a vindicated and wrongly convicted man leaving prison and another going in to take his place was taken at the gate of Sing Sing Prison. Henry Clive is the man coming out and Charles Dalton, as the corrupt John Blake, is going in. There also is shown an intimate view of the harred and screened visitors' room at the famous prison.

in Fighting Goldwyn

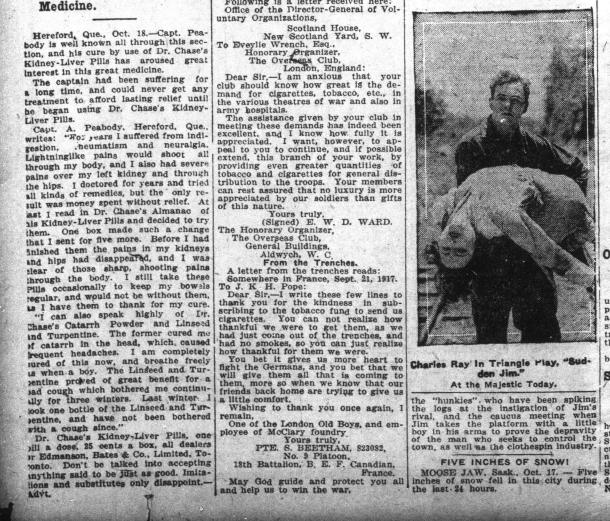

'Birth" All Next Week at the Patricia. "Birth," the most remarkable picture ever filmed, will be shown for one week—to women only—at the Patricia Theatre, commencing October 22. It is remarkable because it is life itself. It has no plot, no professional players, no faked scenes. It shows the sanctity and duties of motherhood, the holiest of callings. Better bables is the aim of the film's producers. It shows scenes in the life of the babe from his advent into the world until he is six years old. Every woman should see "Birth." She will be a wiser woman and a better mother. A symphony orchestra of 20 pieces accompanies the picture, and an interesting lecture is given by Mrs. J. Stuart. -Shown to Women Only.

MAJESTIC.

Charles Ray appears as James Ashe, Jr., in "Sudden Jim," a Triangle play pictured from the popular novel and Saturday Evening Post story of the same name by Clarence Budington Kelland.

"Sudden Jim" is showing at the Majestic Theatre again today.
Following is a synopsis of the play:
James Ashe, Sr., known as "Clothespin manufacturer, gives young Jim $50,000 and tells him to play or work. The boy has the fire of business in him, and he decides to take over his father's factory in a Michigan town, described as being inhabited by a dozen people and about 500 folks. There he meets Mane Ducharme, a girl of strange, turbulent personality, who attracts him. In his fight against a combine of crooked competitors he believes Marie has treacherously played him into the hands of his enemies. But in the supreme moment of his trial, when it appears that his defeat and financial ruin are certain, he learns that she has risked her life to warn him against the gang's conspiracy. The picture is filled with stiring scenes of action, as where Jim's men battle with

TEN MORE RECRUITS UP

Total of 121 Come Before Two Local Boards Wednesday-Rush Continues.

No slackening in the rush of applicants for examination under the mili-tary service act is in evidence here. On Wednesday 111 men passed before the boards and line-ups today indicate that the number examined today will be fully that great. Many of the applicants come from a distance, as evidenced by the parked motor cars before the arm-at top speed and using every minute of the time is apparent from the fact that in addition to examining 111 men under the military service act they passed ten men for enlistment.

Recruits on Wednesday were: A. J. Mathews, England, London, Class A2, Western Ontario Regiment; S. E. Addley, Canadian, London, Class A2, Western Ontario Regiment; N. Rome under peculiar circumstances,

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. - An American destroyer on patrol duty in the war zone was torpedoed by an enemy submarine yesterday and had one man killed and five wounded. She managed to make port despite severe damage. Vice-Admiral Sims cabled a brief report of the incident to the navy department late today. He gave few details, but it is assumed there was no fighting, and the U-boat made good her escape, after launching a torpedo, without showing herself. In accordance with the policy of secrecy concerning American naval operations, the department did not divulge the name of the destroyer or the exact place of the encounter.

or the exact place of the encounter.
Although American torpedoboat destroyers have covered nearly a million miles since the United States entered the war, crossing the ocean, convoying vessels and chasing submarines, this is the first time a German submarine succeeded in damaging one of them with a torpedo.

SWISS INCENSED BY GERMAN INTERFERENCE

Geneva, Oct. 18.—German newspapers, headed by the Lokal Anzeiger, have started a campaign against M. Ador, the Swiss foreign minister, whom they accuse of being pro-Ally. Much indignation, has been caused in Switzerland through the interference of Germany ir Swiss internal affairs, and the Germans' desire the return of Hoffmann in the November elections.

Ye that have gentle hearts and fain To succour men in need, There is no voice could ask in vain With such a cause to plead-The cause of those that in your care Who know the debt to honour due, Confide the wounds they proudly bear, The wounds they took for you.

Out of the shock of shattering spears, Of screaming shell and shard, Snatched from the smoke that blinds and sears They come with bodies scarred, And count the hours that idly toll Restless until their hurts be healed-And they may fare, made strong and whole, To face another field.

And youder where the battle waves Broke yesterday o'erhead, Where now the swift and shallow graves

Think how your sisters play their part To serve as in a holy shrine, Tender of hand and brave of heart, Under the Red Cross sign.

Cover the Empire's dead:

Ah, by that symbol, worshipped still, Of life blood sacrificed, That lonely Cross on Calv'ry's Hill, Red with the blood of Christ; By that free gift to none denied Let pity serve you like a sword, And Love go out to open wide The gate of life restored.
