Work Will Be Given.

One of the most interesting units of the whole Canadian militia will start recruiting in London on Wednesday evening, November 10, at the armories, namely, No. 1 company, Canadian Signal Corps.

On November 15 a regular course in signaling, given by qualified instructors, at the end of which successful

This branch of the service is one which will appeal to every young man who desires to become better educated, both physically and mentally. It also holds a special appeal for men who were signallers in the C. E. F. as the officers are all ex-service men. It W. Howie, President of Central Vet erans' Council. Toronto, Has Two

W. Howie, president of the Central Veterans' Council in Toronto and criculation manager of the Great War Veterans' magazine, informed Secretary J. W. Cunliffe of the local command that while he was in St. Thomas he would like to speak to the soldiers of London on the subject of the bonus they have asked for. Mr. Howie spoke on this subject to a crowded house at Massey Hall last Sunday. He said he had the 17th and 18th of this month open, and that if satisfactory arrangements could be made by the London soldiers he would speak to them.
