Morris Young, an usher, went to quiet him, and the crowd of about 100 people occupying the south gallery, which is about 15 feet wide by 30 feet long, pressed forward to see what was going on. The railing creaked loudly and a moment later gave way. The crowd made for the doors and the house was soon emptied. The exits are not remarkable for width, but nobody was hurt in the scramble.

Dickson was a lumber agent in Albert County of W. M. MacKay, one of the largest lumber merchants in Eastern charged with William Lockhart Rus-Canada. He received from MacKay large sums of money as advances against contracts for lumber to be purchased and delivered by him. In many cases the contracts were forged.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 4.-Special.)—Rev. Dr. William Patterson, pastor of Bethany Presbyterian Church, 22nd and Bainbridge-streets who came here from Cooke's Church Toronto, is in a serious condition at the Presbyterian Hospital, suffering from a stroke of apoplexy.

He was stricken this afternoon at the Franklin National Bank, and was taken to the hospital in what was thought to be a dying condition, Memthought to be a dying condition, Members of his family, who are summering at Cape May, N.J., were immediately summoned to his bedside.

Dr. Patterson is one of the most distinguished of the local ministers. He is a noted orator and indefatigable church worker. His congregation is the largest down town.

Late reports from the hospital are to the effect that he is slightly improved and will likely recover.

Rev. Dr. Patterson has a host of friends in Toronto. Arriving in this city in 1880, he entered Knox College, and on graduation in 1886 received a call to Cooke's Church, where he continued until 1900. In that year, much to the regret of all, he accepted the call to Bethany Church, Philadelphia, known as Wanamaker's Church, feeling that the field of labor there was wider. He has been in Toronto several times since and last spring an invitation was extended to him to return to Cooke's Church pulpit, which is now vacant.

Friends in Toronto were greatly surprised last evening to hear of his illness in Philadelphia, as he was holidaying in Germany when last heard from. He has suffered from paralytic seizures before, but not seriously.
