Eighty-five Parcels Were Disposed Of-Many Redemptions at Last Moment.

Prices paid yesterday at the tax sale of lots in York township were considered "good," the sale being held by Treasurer W. J. Douglas at the township offices, 40 Jarvis street. There were 85 sales made during the day, the highest price being $600, parcel No. 471, sub-lot 1956, plan 1537, Lawrence, N.S., 205 feet, division No. 2-A. West York. In no case did the lot go as low as the tax charge which was for arrears of 1916-17-18. There were a great many redemptions at the last moment. Reeve F. H. Miller expressed satisfaction with the progress of the sale and the prices paid. The council chamber was well filled, many real estate men being on hand. In division No. 1, East York, there were 378 parcels registered, and of these 14 were sold, the highest bringing $505. This was a 50-foot lot in Cedarvale, Don Mills.

In division No. 1-A, East York, parcels 379 to 399, six were sold from $170 to $215. No. 2, East York, parcels 400 to 423 two years of Division No. 2 and years of the sold to 2015.

cels 400 to 423, two were sold. Div No. 2, West York, lots 424 to 448, nine, teen were sold from $35 to $50. Di-vision No. 2-A, West York, parcels 450 to 512, twenty were sold from $30 to $600. Division No. 3, Swansea, parcels 513 to 542, eleven sold from $20 to $360. The highest here was No. 524, sub-lot 21, plan 1548, Brumell, W.S., division No. 3-A.

Swansea and Runnymede, parcels 548 to 578, six sold from $25 to $210. Division No. 4, north of St. Clair avenue, between Yonge and Bathurst, par-cels 574 to 612, eleven sold from $250

The sale yesterday started at 12 o'clock, standard time, but Treasurer Douglas announced that new time would be observed from now on, the Wolvin Gratified.

Following the adjournment, Roy Market Wolvin, president of the companyation out the following statement:
"I am more than gratified at the splendid spirit of unanimity evidence." ed at the meeting this morning, The vote polled, 298,000 shares, is the largest represented at a general meeting since the inception of the company, and there was not one dissenting vote.

Now that our shareholders have taken this step, I feel that it is fitting for me to say a few words regarding the British Empire Steel Corporation.

"This plan to provide for the association of various Canadian enterprises has been very close to me for a long time, and I am convinced that it will be of great benefit to the province of Nova Scotia and the Dominion of Canada. We today must take a broad world vision, and the association of the proposed companies will make it possible for the Canadian steel industry to take its proper place in world trade.'
