HARBOR MATTERS KEEP STIRRING

Matter of Pay of S. H. Mayes—A Clash is Reported.

In view of a statement made by Commissioner Bullock that he would not be responsible for the payment of S. H. Mayes, appointed by Mayor Potts as inspector, time keeper and checker of material in the harbor department, considerable curiosity has been aroused as to how payment would be made. Included in the list of payments made during July, placed before the council yesterday, was an item of $35, 7 days pay for S. H. Mayes and an enquiry made to the city comptroller brought the information that this was charged to general revenue, the only fund over which the mayor has full control.

Geo. W. Stegmann Resigns Post in Military Service Here.

After nearly 13 years service in Military District No. 7, George W. Stegmann, a popular officer, has resigned and in future will devote his talents in the commercial line. He was a member of the original staff receiving his appointment as chief clerk from Ottawa on the inception of the New Brunswick Military district. During the war he filled various appointments, chief among which were: Chief Clerk in the deputy chief censor's office; chief clerk of the administrative staff, and director of the dental services.

He is a native of South Africa, a son of J. W. Stegmann, B. A., and a grandson of the late Rev. J. A. Stegmann, M. A., one of the most highly respected ministers of the Dutch Reformed Church in South Africa. He was called at the Marist Brothers' College in Johannesburg.

He spent seven and a half years service in the department of the Colonial Secretary in South Africa and passed examinations for the practise of law. Mr. Stegmann was also an athlete of note representing Transvaal in the intercolonial lacrosse championships in 1909. He also participated in cricket and Rugby football matches and was captain of some of the leading teams in South Africa. In the track and field events he made quite a reputation as a runner and has a record of 10 1/5 seconds for the 100 yards event.
