OUEBEC REFUSES

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Ossing, N. Y., April 28—James L.

O'Dell, 24, of Rochester (N. Y.), was put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison tonight, for the murder of Edward H. Kneip on Jan. 7, 1920.

O'Dell's wife, Pearl, who also was convicted of the crime, is now serving a life sentence in Auburn prison. A daughter was born shortly after she began her sentence.

The case in which David Trachberg is charged with having opium in his possession again was postponed yesterday afternoon without any witnesses being a cxamined.

A new sounding operation, to assembly the case in which David Trachberg than the depth of rock bottom, was best of the depth of rock bottom, was best on again at Union station yesterday in the train shed—or, rather, where the train shed used to be. The drill is set up at the rail-head between tracks No. 1 and 2.
