Williamson and Miss Mildred French; duet by Misses Beattie and Cairns and several selections by the junior of the Y. P. S. The Rev. I. W. There was a very large attendance and the vestry was prettily decorated for the occasion with the flags of the Allies.

CHANGES IN FOOD
LAWS SUMMARIZED

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—Changes in the food regulations following upon the armistice of November 11, insofar as they affect the general public are summarized in a Canada Food Board statement as follows:

Compulsory restrictions of the amount of flour which may be held in store by dealers, householders, and others have been rescinded.

The compulsory purchase of a proportion of substitutes for wheat flour has been rescinded. The use of substitutes by manufacturers, bakers, public restaurants and householders are no longer compulsory, but in view of the necessity of conservation and in order to prevent waste of stock of substitutes already on hand the food board urges the greatest possible voluntary use of them to be continued.

Sandwiches may now be served in public eating places during the noon meal hour.

Restrictions on the quantity of bread served at public eating places are now removed.

Manufacturers may make and sell doughnuts, biscuits, crullers, Scotch short bread or cake, and French pastry, provided they use vegetable fats only.

Manufacturers, provided they do not exceed forty pounds of sugar to every 100 pounds of flour may make and sell iced cakes and biscuits filled with icing, so long as they do not increase the total amount of sugar used as allowed.

Restrictions on the manufacture of wheat in the form of breakfast food, alimentary paste, buckwheat and self-raising flour, etc., have been rescinded.

Conservation regulations of beef are still in force and are still important, in view of the requirements at the present time and in the future.

Conservation of butter and animal fats are still very important.

Until the end of the year, the regulation of the consumption of sugar will be necessary, after which it is hoped the new crop will be available.

The list of those from Trinity congregation who made the supreme sacrifice, published yesterday, was incomplete. It should have included the name of James Irvine Earle, who fell at the front on August 27, 1918.

The public is wise
in its food selections.

Recent demand
for the well known
ready-cooked food

Grape-Nuts

shows how the first
use of a full-worth
food is followed by continued repeat orders.

Nothing made of wheat
and barley has so much of attractive taste and stand-by nourishment
as Grape-Nuts food.
