AMUSEMENTS FOR

OPERA HOUSE.

The Opera House will have what is expected to prove a big bidder for public patronage this week, and its attraction is to be Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's great story, Uncle Tom's Cabin, although as a result of some cheap productions touring the country this famous play has received ridicule at times, still under capable, conscientious management as that of Leon W. Washburn's organization, it will ever have the power, it is felt, to make its admirers feel the beauty and pathos of its lines. The Washburn company, known for years to the public as Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., is said to have a larger combination this year than ever.

THE GEM.

As a souvenir of the great event of national import in the current year, the Coronation of King George and Queen Mary, each patron attending the Gem Theatre tomorrow will be given a pretty coronation badge, of a kind expected to prove very popular. The theatre will open at 10 am, and a special programme has been prepared to commemorate the opening of the newly constructed balcony, and coronation day as well. Miss Allan will be heard in "Sugar Moon," while the orchestry will render some patroits eslections. For today and tomorrow the feature film production will be a western story of the Essanay Co. "An Indian Maid'a Lesson," wherein a commandment, is nearly violated by a clergyman who is prevented by the warning of an Indian maidea to whom helad taught the Scripture. The Jubin Company has a ticking laugh maker in "Will It Ever Come to This?" a comedy of the new woman of 1920, and they will also present another equally funny "Easy Coin." At St. Johns.

THE LYRIC.

The Lyric Theatre believes it is surely deserving of patronage, especially tomorrow for its successful efforts to present to patrons a programme that would be hard to excel. For Thursday an extra feature has been secured in a set of picture studies showing prominent characters and feetures of the coronation ceremony. The views include Their Majesties the King and Queen in coronation robes, the ancient coronation chair, the interior of Westminster Abbey, the chapel of St. Edward the Confessor, where the king and queen will crowned, Most Rev. Thos. Daridson, will preach the coronation symmon; Field Marshal Kitchener, commander of the London troops, and Col. H. H. McLean, M. P., commander of the Canadian contingent. Three reels of film with plenty of comedy and drama will fill the rest of this portion of the programme. An act employing five people will ably look after the vaudeville. This is Whitney's Miniature Musical Comedy, and is something entirely new to St. John.

THE UNIQUE.

tirely new to St. John.

THE UNIQUE.

Always endeavoring to keep pace with the times the Unique Theatre have succeeded in bringing together some excellent feature films for their coronation programme. The feature subject is to be "The Unveiling of the Memorial to the late Queen Victoria." The ceremonies attendant upor the unveiling are shown. Besides this three holiday comedies and dramas are billed, viz.: "The Fair Dentist," a clever comedy by the Imp Co., about a sind with too many suitors; "The Hostage," a drama of the Middle Ages; "Four Lives," another breezy laugh suplier; and "An Indian's Ambition," a Bison Indian classic. For coronation day Mr. Malcolm has selected the veterans' song, "Long Live the King." The doors will open at 10 o'clock Thursday, with a continuous performance.

THE STAR.

For Wednesday and Thursday the Star Theatre has arranged a special coronation programme. "King Bobby," is one of the Gaumont's latest releases and has been specially secured for the Star. This picture is in natural colors and reproduces an elegantly costumed comedy drama. "Rescued from the Desert," is an interesting Indian drama by the Kalem Company. Bertha's Mission, is a comedy drama with elever acting and handsomely photographed by the Vitagraph company. "An Excusion on the Roman River is a scenic film by the Gaumont Company, Miss Newington will sing "The Dublin Rag," (Madame Sherry) as a regular number and during the evening she will sing some national songs. She has won many admirers among Star patrons this week. The Star will be open in the evening of the holiday only except the weather is wet in which case they will open in the afternoon. THE STAR.
