

CUNNABELL'S NOVA (9) SCOTIA ALMANAC.

of sulphuric ether like Mendelssohn or Rossini?—Because it's one of the greatest composers of modern times.

How is Ireland likely to become the richest island in the universe? Because its capital is always Dublin (doubling).

Why can an impostor tell how many toes a cat has?—Because he can counterfeit (count her feet.)

What is that, of which the commonest sort is the best?—Common sense.

Days Month	SUN.						Equation of Time.	Add.
	Rises.	Sets.	Declin'n. South.
1	7	12	4	48	17	15	8	13	49
2	7	11	4	49	16	58	3	13	57
3	7	9	4	50	16	40	41	14	5
4	7	8	4	52	16	23	1	14	11
5	7	6	4	53	16	5	4	14	17
6	7	5	4	55	15	46	50	14	21
7	7	3	4	57	15	28	21	14	25
8	7	2	4	58	15	9	35	14	28
9	7	1	4	59	14	50	35	14	31
10	7	0	5	0	14	31	19	14	32
11	6	59	5	1	14	11	50	14	33
12	6	57	5	3	13	52	6	14	33
13	6	55	5	5	13	32	8	14	32
14	6	54	5	6	13	11	58	14	30
15	6	52	5	8	12	51	34	14	28
16	6	50	5	10	12	30	59	14	24
17	6	49	5	11	12	10	11	14	21
18	6	48	5	12	11	49	12	14	16
19	6	46	5	13	11	28	1	14	11
20	6	45	5	15	11	6	40	14	5
21	6	44	5	16	10	45	8	13	58
22	6	42	5	18	10	23	27	13	51
23	6	41	5	19	10	1	36	13	43
24	6	40	5	20	9	39	35	13	34
25	6	38	5	22	9	17	26	13	25
26	6	36	5	24	8	55	9	13	15
27	6	34	5	26	8	32	43	13	5
28	6	33	5	27	8	10	10	12	54
29	6	31	5	29	7	47	30	12	43

What weapon does a young lady resemble whose acquaintances pass her without noticing her?—A Cut-lass.

"You'll find it out," as the thief said to himself when he saw a gentleman feeling his pocket for his handkerchief.

What must be a prisoner's feelings when he looks through the bars of his window?—Grating.

A man who never leaves his country seat, is certain to die not with standing.

Greasing the Wheels.—A countryman called at a watchmaker's, complaining that his watch would not go. 'Why,' said the watchmaker, examining the works, 'I never saw such a dirty thing in my life; what have you done with it?' 'Aw took t'feather awt o't grease horn,' replied the countryman, 'to grease t'axletrees; awthow it would go easier, loik my cart wheels when they're new greased: but it wouldn't goa at all after that.'

An Officer and a Gentleman.—A cornet of Hussars, who was not so polished in his manners as could be wished, having recently joined his regiment, was asked by his Colonel what his father was. 'A farmer,' he replied.—'Pity your father did not make you follow his trade.' Upon which the Cornet asked, 'Pray, Sir, what is your father?' 'A gentleman,' 'Pity he did not make you one,' added the Cornet.

year. March the 10th, 1848, is considered the most probable period.

writer has personally tried, as well as witnessed its successful results when practised by others, will be of much importance to those who cultivate early potatoes for sale or home consumption, and to carry it out requires very little extra trouble.—Liverpool paper.

When the ash tree opens its leaf before the oak, a wet summer usually follows; and when the oak tree opens its leaf before the ash, a dry summer usually follows.

To RELIEVE CHOLIC IN HORSES.—Rub spirits of turpentine on the

7/01
0.0