

a devotional spirit, and of dealing with such matters of Christian and ministerial duty as do not come within the ordinary range of College prelections, an hour is set apart in the afternoon of each Monday during the session, the exercises of which are presided over by the Professors in rotation, when all Students, Theological and Literary, are expected to be present.

II. STUDENTS' PRAYER MEETING.

This meeting, of a purely devotional character, is held every week, at an hour fixed at the commencement of the session, the exercises being conducted by the Students in rotation.

Mission Work.

During the Summer vacation, Students may engage, and all Divinity Students are expected to engage, in Missionary work, in the numerous and extensive fields of labour provided by the thirty-four Presbyteries of the Church.

Students in Theology are also permitted to preach a limited number of Sabbaths during the session.

Students are thus early made acquainted with the practical work of the ministry, and enabled to gratify their desire to preach the Gospel, while providing, at least in part, for their maintenance during the period of their study.
