Children naturally object to nauseous medicines. When troubled with Worms they often suffer for want of sound sleep and their food does not seem to nourish them. Give promptly McLean's Vegetable Surger table Syrup.

Gen. and Mme. Boulanger have partially arranged their domestic differences.

Your wasted cheek may have all the plumpness and bloom of health through your use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This time-honored remedy still leads the van. It improves digestion, purifies the blood, and invigorates the system. Give it a trial.

Lord Randolph Churchill will in a shor me start on a visit to South Am The harsh, drastic purgative, once deemed so indispensable, have given place to milder and more skilfully prepared laxatives; hence the great and growing demand for Aper's Pills. Physicians everywhere recommend them for costiveness, indigestion, and liver complaint.
