ROLLING MILLS EXTENSION.
A New Building and Additional Machinery to be Added.

The Portland Rolling Mills have begun the extension of their works by calling for tenders for the erection of a large new building. This building is to be situated on the northern side of and adjoining the present mills, being connected with the past used as a mill works. It will be one hundred and forty feet in length by ninety feet wide and will be used as an extension to the mill and horsehoe works. The present branch of the mill used for nails, tacks, spikes and horsehoes has been found far too small for the requirements of the work, the men and machines are crowded, and there are not enough machines running to fill all the orders that might be taken. Several new machines have been purchased but cannot be set up until there is room for them.

The new building, tenders for which will close tomorrow, will afford much greater capacity and relieve the present congestion.

Concerning future plans the managers of the mills are reticent. They do not deem that important extensions, including new works, are under consideration, but state that as yet very little has been settled. A short time ago Superintendent Perkins went to the United States to look at modern machinery and tenders are now also being called for additions to the plant.

JUNE, WEDDINGS.

FAIRWEATHER-NILES.

Last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Walter Scott Fairweather, of Boston, son of the late Douglas M. Fairweather, and in the employ of the McClary Manufacturing Co., was united in marriage to Miss Jessie Blanche Niles, third daughter of Henry and Mrs. Niles, 127 Douglas avenue, Rev. Dr. G. G. Gates performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a white voile frock with underdress of cream tulle silk. Miss Niles, her sister, was bridesmaid, and Ernest L. Field supported the groom. After the ceremony supper was served. The happy young couple will leave for Boston and New York today by boat to spend the honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside at No. 127 Douglas avenue. The presents were numerous and handsome, among them being a solitaire diamond ring from the groom to the bride, and the some to the bridesmaid.

MITCHELL-HETHERINGTON.

The wedding took place at six o'clock this morning of Robert A. B. Mitchell, son of George Mitchell, 223 Brussels street, Miss Mary Jean Hetherington, daughter of Robert Hetherington, of the Washademoak. The ceremony was performed at the Kings Daughters' Guild by the Rev. Christopher Burnett, pastor of Leinster Street Baptist church. The best man was J. Christie, of Moncton, and the bride was attended by Miss Jennie Jewett.

The large list of gifts included a cheque for $50 from William Christie, of Moncton; $100 from Mrs. J. W. Gates officiating. The bride was dressed in a travelling suit of navy blue cheviot with piping of black silk, and hat to match.

After the wedding breakfast the happy couple left on the Boston express for a three weeks' tour of New England cities.

Many handsome presents were received by the bride, among them being: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Titus, jardiener, and pedestal; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Titus, sterling silver berry spoon; J. H. Titus, Wollaston, Mass., cheque; J. W. Titus, New Braintree, Mass., gold piece; Mrs. J. W. Titus, New Braintree, Mass., chocolate set; Mrs. C. W. Martens, E. Titus, Cambridgeport, Mass., cut glass salad dish; Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Fowland, Salisbury, N. B., cut glass water jug and tumblers; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frink, of Indiantown, N. B., Jordan, Boston, Mass., oil painting; Mrs. Eugene Merrill, Medford, Mass., silver bread tray; Mrs. Dieudonne, fern dish; Mrs. James W. Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Frank L. Robinson, the popular auditor of the Canadian Eastern Railway, of Marysville, and Miss Ida Warwick, of St. John. The ceremony will take place at St. John on Wednesday, June 10.

SPORTSMEN'S PARADISE.

A Moose Captured in the Harbor This Morning.

Seidman has Market Slip been the scene of such excitement as it was this morning between eight and nine o'clock. From end to end North and South wharves were black with people and even the slip itself was well filled. The excitement was all due to the capture of a young moose.

It is something unusual for a moose to be seen at all near St. John, but about eight o'clock many people in Portland were startled by the sight of one of these animals dashing along Port Howe, down Millidge street to Paradise Row, along Mill to the I. C. terminus and then taking to the water.

Those who saw the moose gave chase and in a very short time numerous small boats put out. One of them, piloted by James and Geo. Happeney, James Lavigne and Mr. Burnside caught up to and got a line around the moose when off North wharf. The animal, though a young one put up a good fight, and it was only after considerable struggle that the boat was brought into Market Slip. But all the trouble the men had outside was but a Sunday school picnic in comparison with what happened in the slip. The moose struggled and showed itself a master of evasive man in a boat. It darted suddenly in different directions, towing the boat along in spite of the efforts of the men. It leaped in the water and made it impossible for a second time to get a line around it. It was thrown from the schooner in the slip, other small boats went to assist in the fight, scores of men and boys waded out in the water or jumped from the schooners but the moose defied all attempts at one time towing two boats away out into the slip.

All this time the wharves were black with cheering crowds who offered many suggestions.

Finally when two boats were attached to the moose a line was carried on shore and a crowd of about fifty succeeded in hauling the animal to dry land, captured but unconquered. On land the moose used its heels and for a time kept the men away but in a few minutes it was thrown and countless ropes tied around its legs. The animal was placed on a sloop and hauled to Rockwood Park where it will be kept.

This young moose was just when it is needed for the last of the two which were in the park died last winter.

A large moose was seen on the Manawagonish road this morning quite near Fairville. On Sunday last a farmer near Fairville was favored by the presence of a deer in his barn yard.

CARLETON BASEBALL.

The first game of the Carleton League was played last evening on the open-air rink grounds. Monday evening's game between the Croissants and Shamrocks had been called off. Last evening the Martellos and the Imperials played, the former winning in a score of 5 to 1.

Tonight the Union Blends will play the Carleton Athletic team.

The advertising car of the Pan-American Circus has arrived and five teams started out through the county with bill posters.

WINDOWS BROKEN.
Several of the panes of glass are broken in the outside windows of the government immigration building in St. John West. This is not the best plan of ventilating such a building. It would almost seem as if the season was now warm enough to justify the removal and storage of these outside shades, until the season for their further use returns. The building would not be injured by having the windows opened and some outside air admitted. It would improve internal conditions for next winter.

The death occurred at Providence, R. I., on Monday of Margaret L., widow of the late Robert Mottion, for many years stipendiary magistrate of Halifax.

NO DROP IN MILK.

The city milkmen have entered into an agreement to continue the winter prices of milk and cream all summer. A dealer said to the Star today that the changed conditions have made this necessary. There are so many creameries through the province that the farmers have less milk to offer for this market. Then pastureage is very poor this year, owing to the drought, and farmers have to feed their cows to keep up the flow of milk.

DISCOP CASEY.
Buys Sydney Street Land and Will Improve St. Malachi's.

Mutually satisfactory arrangements have been made by His Lordship Bishop Casey and R. J. Armstrong for the purchase by his lordship of St. Malachi's school building, in Sydney street, and the purchase and sale will be executed at once. This means that there will be a fine addition made to St. Malachi's school.

The negotiations have been going on for some time, and were brought to a satisfactory conclusion this week and the Roman Catholic Bishop of St. John will shortly be the owner of the lot adjoining St. Malachi's and extending down Sydney street and back to the rear of the school building.

Bishop Casey proposes to improve the school building and the trustees have signified their willingness to pay a satisfactory rental under the new conditions, but that is a matter to be arranged. The idea is to remodel the present building, making say eight rooms out of the twelve now there, making the lighting better and otherwise bringing the building up to modern standards. Then on the new property will be built a two or three story, side attached wing, with large rooms. This will front on Sydney street. Enclosed between main building and wing will be a commodious play ground and entrance will be from Sydney street, between the two buildings.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.
The Fairville Theft Case Before the Court Today.

The charge against Anson Mabee and Oswald Roberts for stealing was heard in the police court today. These two young men were arrested a week ago yesterday, Mabee at Vancoboro and Roberts in Fairville, and were brought to the city jail. Several witnesses were heard and Mabee made a statement in his own defence.

He said that on Monday, May 25th, he had returned from Fairville from Hampton and went to Mrs. McDonald's, where he had been working. At this house were Roberts and Robert Baker. On Tuesday he spoke to Roberts about going to Boston and the latter told him where some money could be had. They went upstairs to Baker's room and Roberts took a package, a vest hanging on the wall a key with which he opened a trunk. In the trunk was a pocket book containing twenty dollars. This was looked at, replaced, and the trunk locked. Then the two went out and Roberts suggested that Mabee should take the money and pay him, Roberts, five dollars for keeping quiet about it. Tuesday afternoon Mabee took the money, got liquor, got partly drunk, purchased a ticket for Boston, paid Roberts six dollars instead of five and went to sleep at Fairville depot. He took a train to Fredericton Junction, changed cars and went on the express to Vancoboro, where he was arrested on information wired by officer Lawson from Fairville. Roberts was arrested in Fairville the same day.

The two men were committed for trial at the next circuit court to be held on June 15th.

WINDOWS BROKEN.
Several of the panes of glass are broken in the outside windows of the government immigration building in St. John West. This is not the best plan of ventilating such a building. It would almost seem as if the season was now warm enough to justify the removal and storage of these outside shades, until the season for their further use returns.
