Of the fully six hundred passengers-463 of them being registered—who arrived in the city this morning on the jority of them remained over in the PARIS, Aug. 2.—It is believed in well informed quarters here that the position of Port Arthur is much less critical than generally supposed, the Japanese efforts being directed towards strengthening their positions round Port Dalny rather than to advancing to the attack. As a matter of fact, it is said, their advance has not made serious progress during the past three weeks.

This is the first time during the summer that so many tourists have stopped in the city at once, and is a good indication that the August tourist travel is commencing. August has always been the principal month for tourists in St. John, and notwithstanding the fact that the tourist travel so far has been slack, there is an encouraging probability that the present month may equal, if not exceed, the Augusts of past years. This is the first time during the sum-
