OPPOSITION COUNSELS DIVIDED; MANY WAVING. PEACE TREATY LIKELY

OTTAWA, May 17—The short truce of last week with respect to the debate in the commons on the election bill has apparently resulted in little change in the situation. This week hostilities will begin again and the debate will probably be resumed tomorrow, the government making it perfectly clear just what the issue now is between the two parties and clearing up the many misrepresentations now circulating in the opposition press as to what the government's proposed amendments to the clause really mean.

In brief what the government desires and will insist on are fair election lists in Manitoba, British Columbia and the unorganized districts of Ontario and Quebec. The high question is whether the judges shall simply have the right to allocate the lists and not the complete withdrawal of the government simply proposes to leave the whole question of the allocation of the lists in the hands of the non-partisan tribunal of the court.

Under the present system with provincial and federal constituencies overlapping it is admitted by both sides that some means must be devised of legally and properly allocating the provincial lists to the respective Dominion constituencies. At present there is no provision in the law for doing this and the opposition while demanding complete withdrawal of the clause one of the bill, have so far not suggested any substitute for the government's plan. In addition to the allocation of the lists by the judges, the government proposes that at the same time the judges shall have power to add on any voters that should properly be on the lists or strike off any whose names are improperly on.

The Manitoba lists are prepared in a different manner from that prevailing in any other province, and are controlled directly by officials of the provincial government. The contention of the government, as borne out by the fact adduced during the debate, is that the Roblin government has used and is using this control to disfranchise hundreds of Liberals. "An engine of tyranny and oppression," was the way Mr. Aylesworth characterized it. To safeguard the rights of all electors and to insure that every elector who has the right to vote should be placed on the list the government asks the opposition to consent to the absolutely fair proposition of taking the whole matter out of the control of officials specially appointed by either the federal or the provincial government.

To this proposition the opposition still wavers and demands that the judges shall simply have the right to allocate the lists and not the complete withdrawal of the government simply proposes to leave the whole question of the allocation of the lists in the hands of the non-partisan tribunal of the court.

Some of the federal Conservatives, however, are wavering as to the advisability of maintaining the "right or wrong, no surrender" attitude too long. They fear the common sense of the people will not support them in a quarrel with the Liberal majority. WILL COMMAND CANADA'S MARINE

Capt. Kingsmill to Assist Spain.

Latter's Duties Getting Too Heavy—Naval Militia the Idea.

OTTAWA, May 17—Captain Kingsmill of the Royal Navy, who was a Canada a couple of years ago, will join the Canadian marine service at the end of the month as commander of the Canadian marine service.

Commander Spain, found that the duties of the branch and of the marine department over which he has had supervision for many years, are increasing so rapidly that he was unable to attend to all of them satisfactorily and he therefore advised the Minister of Marine to divide the service under his control into two branches, asking to be relieved of command of the marine service. This has been done. Capt. Kingsmill being secured to take over the marine control and Commander Spain will give all his time to the duties of wreck and salvage commissioner. With the increase of Canadian marine business and the taking control of Montreal and Gulf ports, the duties of this branch have greatly increased and Commander Spain has had to be continually absent from headquarters carrying on investigations.

Captain Kingsmill takes command of the marine service, which comprises the government ships on the Atlantic, the St. Lawrence, the lakes and the Pacific, at a salary of $5,000. It is understood that his appointment suggests an advance in the movement toward the development of a naval militia. This was begun some years ago under Commander Spain, and there are now seamen in training along British naval lines, on the cruiser Canada and some other of the fleet of protecting cruisers. The details of a further extension of this service will not be worked out until Captain Kingsmill has taken command and has made a report on the project. However, it is understood that the development of the naval militia will be gradual and will keep pace with public opinion in the matter of increasing Canada's share in imperial defense.

REMAINED IN BARN TEN DAYS WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER

Irish Immigrant Endured Terrible Sufferings in Ontario.

GUELPH, Ont., May 15—Lying in a barn in a horrible condition, his body wasting away for the lack of proper nourishment, a man was found in a barn near Rockwood yesterday afternoon. He was found by Capt. Head and was removed to the Guelph General Hospital and everything possible was done to save his life. His legs will have to be amputated at the knees and operation may prove fatal on account of the run-down and starving condition in which he was when found.

He is a native of County Kerry and gave the name of James Kennedy. Last June he came to America to visit his sister who lives in Buffalo. After staying in that city for a short time, he began wandering about the United States and Canada. He was unable to secure employment, and during the winter he has been wandering about Ontario seeking work and getting food and shelter wherever he was able. During one of the cold snaps of the recent winter his feet were frozen. He was unable to give them any attention and not realizing the seriousness of his condition he did not have his feet attended to. His legs have been getting worse and worse and he has been unable to walk for some time. He was found in a barn, evidently he crawled into a barn, evidently he was there for some time. During the ten days that he had been living in the barn he had nothing to sustain life but a turnip and a drink of water. The pain from his legs and his starving condition was slowly driving him mad and when found he could not give any clear account of himself or of his adventures.

SUCCESSFUL CHURCH PARADE IN MONTREAL

MONTREAL, May 17—The most successful church parade in the history of the Montreal garrison took place today, more than 3,500 men being in line. The service for Protestants was held in the Arena, the officiating clergyman being the chaplain of the different regiments, while the Roman Catholics attended at St. Louis, a couple of blocks west of the Arena, the two sections rejoicing after service and returning to their armories via Sherbrooke street. It is estimated that more than 100,000 people lined the streets over which the troops marched.

IS DANGEROUSLY ILL

MONTREAL, May 17—Hon. H. H. Roy, president of the Banque de St. Jean, which closed its doors last night, is lying dangerously ill at St. John's, the last rites of the church having been administered to him today. Mr. Roy is suffering from acute heart trouble brought on by the worry and anxiety of failure of this bank, which it is stated, practically left him penniless. Investigations show that the affairs of the bank are in a much worse condition than at first stated, and there is a likelihood of depositors losing every cent of the $300,000 they had on deposit.
