KIDNEY DISEASE FOR TEN YEARS.

A Glen Miller Man's Terrible Trial.

He Found a Cure at Last in Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. P. M. Burk, who is a well-known resident of Glen Miller, Hastings Co., Ont., was afflicted with kidney trouble for ten years.

So pleased is he at having found in Doan's Kidney Pills a cure for his ailments, which he had begun to think were incurable, that he wrote the following statement of his case so that others similarly afflicted may profit by his experience: "I have been afflicted with kidney trouble for about ten years and have tried several remedies but never received any real benefit until I started taking Doan's Kidney Pills. My back used to constantly ache and my urine was high colored and milky looking at times. Since I have finished the third box of Doan's Kidney Pills I am happy to state that I am not bothered with backache at all and my urine is clear as crystal. I feel confident that these pills are the best kidney specific in the country."

Briere persisted in declaring himself innocent.

Patrick Deery, aged 23 years, died at the General Hospital, Montreal on Monday. He was taken to the hospital on Wednesday in a cab in a semi-conscious condition. During lucid interval he stated he had met a man in an up-town hotel, who had offered to cure him of the liquor habit for $50. Deery took a dose of the medicine offered him and became dazed. Death was apparently due to the effects of this drug. Detectives are making searching enquiries into the matter.

Two universities for women will be opened next year, one at Tokio, Japan, and the other at Moscow. The Russian university for women has been endowed by a wealthy merchant, M. Astraknoff, with 5,000,000 roubles. It will contain for the present only three academic faculties, medical, mathematical and physical scientific. The Russian minister of education, whose sympathy has been gained, cannot see his way yet to the concession of a legal faculty.

THE UP-TO-DATE WOMAN.

Here lies a poor woman who always was busy;
She lived under pressure that rendered her dizzy.
She belonged to ten clubs, and read Browning at sight;
Showed at luncheons and teas, and would vote if she might.
She served on a school board with courage and zeal;
She golfed, and she kodaked, and rode on a wheel;
She read Tolstoi and Ibsen, knew microbes by name;
Approved of Delsarte, was a "Daughter" and "Dame";
Her children went in for the top education,
Her husband went seaward for nervous prostration.
One day on her tablets she found an hour free—
The shock was too great, and she died instantaneously!

In The Staats-Zeitung there is an interesting account, taken from The Tageblatt, of Lucerne, telling about an amusing tariff decision at a Swiss custom house: "A missionary, returning from South America, where he had made some scientific explorations, brought with him a box of skulls, found in ancient Patagonian graves. The custom house inspectors classified these as 'bones of animals,' and demanded payment of duty at the rate of ten rappen (two cents) a pound. The missionary protested, saying that the bones were not animals bones and dilated on their scientific importance. The inspectors then held a consultation, and the box was finally passed free and entered in the records as 'Native skulls, personal effects, already worn.'"—Translation made for The Literary Digest.

Rev. Justus Forward, settled in Belcher-town one hundred years ago, once reproved a workman for swearing over the ploughing of a new field. "Swear," said Ben, "I guess you'd swear." Indignantly denying the charge, Mr. Forward took the plough, and hurried after, panting, "I never did see the like. I never did see the like," till he had seen the round. "There," he said, "you see, I didn't find it necessary to swear." "No," drawled Ben, "but you've told more'n fifty lies. You said you never did see the like, and you saw it all the time I was ploughing."

Rev. Munroe Gibson, London, Eng., a famous preacher, formerly pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, of Chicago, and known in Canada, was hit in the eye by a ball while playing golf, and it is feared he will lose his sight.

Dr. Samuel Smiles, author of the "Self-Help" series, and well known to American readers, celebrated his 90th birthday on Tuesday. His last published book, "A Publisher and His Friends," netted him $10,000, which he gave as a Christmas gift to his four surviving sons and daughter.
