Rev. Dr. Guertin, President of St. Joseph's College, Makes it Clear that Dr. Pugsley's Insinuations are Strongly Objected To—Cheered as He Mentioned Judge Landry's Name—Fine Weather and Large Crowds Attend Commencement Exercises—Dorchester Student Valedictorian—The List of Prizes, Diplomas and Degrees.

Special to The Standard. St. Joseph's College, June 17.—Beautiful weather and large crowds, marked the forty-fifth annual graduation exercises—the most memorable in the history of the institution—which were held at the Lefebvre Memorial hall of the St. Joseph's University yesterday.

At the close of the graduation exercises at St. Joseph's, the President of the University, Very Rev. Louis Guertin, rose to his feet and congratulated Mr. Hector Landry on the success he had attained in the west. In concluding he said: "I want to speak of one thing, and that in particular, and that is the insinuations reflected upon that honorable gentleman, Mr. Justice Landry, President of our Alumni Society."

At the graduation exercises all the visitors of Wednesday night were there, also Judge and Miss Landry, Mr. Hector Landry and bride. Father Guertin presided. Hon. Mr. LeBlanc was present and the parents and friends of the graduates were also in attendance. One master of the wheels which crashed into his skull and down one side of the body, he fainted away. To add to the tragic features of the sad event the boy's mother was sitting near the doorsteps within full view of the accident, and her distress was terrible. Death was practically instantaneous. The driver was single, he stated he saw no difference between the gaps at Fredericton and those at Van Buren, and that he had never seen any better.

In concluding he said: "I want to speak of one thing, and that in particular, and that is the insinuations reflected upon that honorable gentleman, Mr. Justice Landry, President of our Alumni Society."

As these remarks fell from the Reverend President's lips the large audience cheered and cheered for the Reverend President who so upheld that worthy and honorable gentleman, Judge Landry, one of the most upright and prominent of the French Acadian race.

Rev. Louis Guertin, C. S. C., Ph. D., D. D., the president of the institution, has also done much for its welfare. It was chiefly through his efforts that the Lefebvre Memorial hall, and the college skating rink were built in connection with the university. The Lefebvre Memorial hall was built in honor of the founder, and has been named in his memory. He still continues in his labors in behalf of the institution and in him the students both of the present and former years have found one of their best friends.

Special to The Standard. Chatham, N. B., June 17.—Dan McDonald, middle weight wrestler, was champion of America some good exhibitions of mat work here tonight. Only one local man, Michael Jardine, was able to do much against McDonald. For five minutes there was some good wrestling, and then Jardine was put down squarely. Charles Morris, a Swede off one of the American block boats, then offered to wrestle McDonald, Graeco Roman style. Though McDonald is purely a catch-as-catch-can wrestler, he accepted the offer for the sake of good sport, and for 15 minutes the men went at it in great style, but McDonald could not secure a throw. Two boxing bouts between locals were pulled off before the wrestling. About 400 people saw the sport.

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION HEARS MAINE MEN'S EVIDENCE

Elias E. Jones, Lumberman, of St. Francis, Declares Enormous Amount of Lumber is Held Up Along the Shores of the St. John River, and that Logs at Grand Falls are High and Dry on the Land—Considerable Evidence Relative to Shear Booms at Different Points Along the River is Given—Mr. Gregory's Cross-examination.

Special to The Standard. Van Buren, Me., June 17.—The international commission appointed to investigate and report upon the conditions and uses of the St. John river met this morning at the Hammond Hotel. Chairman Barnhill called the meeting to order at ten o'clock. Atty. Fellows, the American consul, filed a copy of the treaty of 1842, also maps defining the boundary of the St. John river. The first witness called was Elias E. Jones, of St. Francis, Maine, owner of a mill at the mouth of the St. Francis. He stated there were thirteen mills along the St. John river from St. Francis to Grand Falls, owned by different parties, including the Smalls, doing local business. He stated that eight million five hundred thousand feet were stranded along the shores of the St. John river above Fort Kent from the Allegash, ten millions from Fort Kent to Van Buren, twenty-two millions eight hundred thousand from Van Buren to Fredericton a week ago, and said there were shear booms all along the river from the Allegash to Fredericton, that the shear booms at Fredericton and those at Van Buren were similar except those at Fredericton were four logs in width, while those at Van Buren were single. He stated he saw no difference between the gaps at Fredericton and those at Van Buren, and that he had never seen any better.

At 12:30 the inquiry was adjourned for lunch. (Associated Press.) Van Buren, Me., June 17.—At the afternoon session of the commission, Mr. Jones was cross-examined by A. J. Gregory, one of the Canadian counsel. He said that there is shear boom opposite his mill, placed there by a contractor for the Madawaska Log Driving Company. Civil Engineer on Stand. Parker L. Hardison, Caribou, Me., civil engineer, was called as the next witness. He made a survey of the St. John river from the suspension bridge at Grand Falls, N. B., to the mouth of the St. Francis river in 1902. He identified a map of the survey made by him at that time and this map was presented by Attorney Fellows to the commission and was admitted as evidence. Mr. Jones was then recalled. He said he went down the St. John river in a bateau a week ago starting at St. Francis and going as far as Fredericton; that the logs he had mentioned at the forenoon session are stranded along the river were not in the water but high and dry on the shores and on islands below Grand Falls, some as high as six feet above the high water mark. At the sorting works of the St. John Lumber Company at Van Buren there was a very small quantity of lumber and a large crew of men was sorting it. The witness said that the greater portion of Chouinard's and Kilburn's drives were held up at the Big Rapids for want of sufficient crew to drive them, there being but twenty men and boys. St. Francis Man Examined. The next witness called was Neal McLean, of St. Francis, Me., a mill owner of that place and also one of the directors of the Madawaska Log Driving Company. He stated that he took all his lumber on the American side. He believed 130,000,000 feet in all was cut above St. Francis, of which not one fourth was cut on the Canadian side. He said that at the big rapids a week ago there was a large amount of lumber held up and that only a crew of twenty-one men and boys were driving there. He went down the St. John river a week ago and estimated that there was twenty millions between the mouth of the St. Francis river and Martin's island, outside of 5,000,000 in the sorting works of the St. John Lumber Company. These 20,000,000 were not floating logs but lying on the shores and on islands. He said that there are shear booms all along the river on both sides and as many below Grand Falls as above. At this point the commission adjourned until ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

LEE CHU ARRESTED AND RELEASED IN DOUBLE QUICK FASHION

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 17.—Lee Chu, the Chinaman who came here from Montreal, and has figured so largely in court proceedings in liberty once more, and his whereabouts are known to very few. The police are searching in vain for him. Chu, it will be remembered, was taken back to Montreal on a warrant charging perjury but he got away and returned to Halifax announcing he was going to make a short stay. Then came a second warrant from Montreal charging subornation of perjury but before he got away from Chu was arrested charged with assaulting young Lee, another Chinaman, and upon the evidence of the complainant was committed for trial. For a few weeks, he has been in jail under this commitment and the fickle public had almost forgotten his case. But Chu came back into the limelight again this morning. He was arraigned before Judge Wallace to elect on the assault charge and choose summary trial pleading not guilty. Then the prosecution said there was no evidence to offer and the judge discharged the Chinaman, but as Chu was leaving the prisoners' box, Officer Marry Wright arrested him on a capias and hurried him down into the street and away to a place where the capias matter could be adjusted. Detective McCorkill, of the Canadian Detective Agency, was on hand and endeavored to have the Monro real warrant enforced. But this warrant was directed to the police officers of the city and there was none such present to make service of it. In the meantime Chu was hurried into a wagon and driven north. It is understood he went to a law-dry where the capias matter was settled and then jumped into an automobile and was whizzed away out of sight. Things happened quickly between Chu's discharge and his disappearance and but few of the onlookers knew what was really doing until they could make inquiries.
