Notice of Meeting

The annual meeting of the Shareholders of The Standard Limited, will be held at the company's office, 27 Prince William street, St. John, at three o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday, July 11th, for the election of directors and such other business as may be brought before the meeting.
The marriage of Miss Pansy Mills, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Mills, of Ottawa, to Mr. Victor Montgomery Drury, of Montreal, eldest son of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Drury, of Halifax, N. S., took place this afternoon at the Dominion Methodist church, Ottawa. The Rev. Dr. Henderson performed the ceremony. Dr. Herbert Sanders presided at the organ and a solo was sung by Miss Helen Ferguson. The bride was given away by her father, and attended by her niece, Miss Louise Creelman, of Guelph, as maid of honor, and by five bridesmaids, Miss Marion Creelman, of Montreal; Miss Margaret Fitzpatrick, Miss Elma Reid, Miss Helena Hughson and Miss Gladys Carling. The best man was Mr. Chipman Drury, of Quebec, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were: Mr. Hazel Porteous, and Mr. Leonard Shaw, of Montreal; Mr. Pat Bergerson and Mr. Bruce Campbell, of Calgary, and Mr. Hugh Fraser, of Montreal. The bride's gown was of white Duchesse satin with a long court train. The bridesmaids wore white crepe de chine and the high waisted skirt trimmed simply with a garland of hand-made silk roses, which extended all down the left side and high up on the bodice. Her tulle veil fell from a mob cap of carriage-macross lace, in which were arranged real orange blossoms and carried in a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a white lingerie frock trimmed with valenciennes lace with sash and Eton coat of baby blue satin, and blue helmet shaped hat, with tiny bunches of pansies and blue ribbon bow, and carried pansies. The bridesmaids wore white marquisette gowns and large white hats, three of which were faced and trimmed with pink and the others with blue the sashes and trimmings of the dress corresponding in color. They all carried pink bouquets. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents and later Mr. and Mrs. Victor Drury left for Quebec, the bride travelling in a suit of matter blue serge with black satin revers and cuffs, worn with a blouse of Irish crochet and French embroidered mull and a small black hat, with blue flowers. Among the guests were Lady Sybil Grey, Mrs. Drury, of Halifax, mother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ambrose, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fergie, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sise, Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Porteous, Mr. A. R. Creelman, the Misses Creelman, Mr. Gordon MacKinnon and Mr. Edward Savage, of Montreal; Miss H. E. Drury, Isle of Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Drury, mother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Price, of Quebec; Mr. N. F. Wilson, M. P. of Rockland; Mr. Strachan Johnston, Prof. and Mrs. C. C. James, of Toronto.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

Coronation Day formed the centre of interest this week, and in no other Canadian city was the holiday more loyally celebrated than in St. John. "Good Save King George and Queen Mary" were in journals and on buildings, until they seemed part of one, and in this spirit the day was a success. The town was gaily decorated, likewise were private residences. The day opened with services in the city churches, this was followed by parades and the illumination of fireworks in the evening, which were close to such a day—a day that will linger in the memories of every patriotic citizen of the empire. At Millidgeville the races proved an attractive feature, as did the dance at the club house in the evening. The Knights of Columbus Fair was another attraction of the week. It will be brought to a close this evening. The gay decorations of the various booths, the brilliant lights and excellent music together with the fancy wares have been thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of people who gathered on the lawn nightly.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

The marriage of Miss Ada Irepo Poopst to Mr. Arthur Tiley, McKean, son of the late Robert McKean, St. John, N. B., took place yesterday afternoon at three o'clock in St. Matthew's church, the Rev. Mr. McElheran officiating. Professor Dolman was at the organ and played the wedding march.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a pretty gown of white duchesse satin trimmed with lace and pearls. Her veil was held by lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl ring.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Poopst, wore a white lingerie gown with touches of pink, and a white picture hat trimmed with pink roses. She carried pink carnations and wore the groom's gift, a pearl brooch. To his best man, Mr. A. L. McIntosh, the groom gave a set of vest buttons and cuff links.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

A reception was held after the service at the home of the bride, Mrs. Tiley. The house was decorated with pink and white carnations, the bride's table being centred by the wedding cake and decorated with white roses and lilies of the valley. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl ring.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

In St. Paul's Church, Montreal, on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Fraser, formerly pastor of St. Stephen's Church, officiated. Mr. P. J. Hilsley of St. George's Church, played the wedding march. The bride, given away by Mr. John MacDonell, wore a gown of white ork and white carnations, and carried an ample bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The ushers were Dr. Fred Tees and Mr. John MacDonell. A reception was given by Mr. Finley. Later Mr. and Mrs. Williams left to spend their honeymoon at Knowlton. Next in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Twain's works.
