

FORMER CHAMPION SCULLER WHO WILL TRY TO COME BACK.

C.S. TITUS

Men who are interested in amateur rowing were agreeably surprised when C. S. Titus, a former champion in single sculls, announced his intention of re-entering the racing field. It is five years since he won his last championship—in 1906, at Worcester, Mass. Prior to that year he won a championship in 1902 on the same course. Titus is getting along toward the forty mark, but with the exception of a few pounds overweight is always in good condition. There are several men who have won hard races when the shades of fifty were falling, notably a crew from the Argonaut Rowing Club, of Toronto, Canada.

WATERVILLE OUTCLASSED IN BOTH GAMES YESTERDAY

Two large crowds turned out yesterday to witness two games of ball on the Waterville grounds and never before in the history of baseball in this city was there such an exhibition. The team that came here to play against the Watervilles was from Waterville, Maine, and proved no more fit to play against the Watervilles than a crowd of women would be to play against the champions of the American League.

The management of the Watervilles are not to blame for such an aggregation coming to the city as they were led to believe by the Waterville management that the Maine team was the best in Waterville and composed of first class players. Waterville was at first reputed to have a very fine team and it was thought that the Watervilles would have to play hard to win. The Waterville manager, however, must have been having a nightmare when he informed the local management that his team was a good one, for in fact they proved the worst bunch of players that ever visited St. John.

There was a large crowd at the morning game, which was all one sided, as the Watervilles shut the visitors out, making 17 hits and 16 runs. Tarbell was the pitcher for the Watervilles and was only found for four hits and struck eight men out. Rogers was the pitcher for the visitors and only lasted for about half the game and was pounded hard, but the catcher went in the box and was hit hard. The first baseman then took a try at the twirling and was hit hard.

The following box score gives an idea of the game:

Afternoon Game. There was an even larger crowd at the afternoon game than in the morning, and it was another brilliant success, as the Marathons made 23 runs, 16 hits, and again blanked the visitors. Rogers went in the box for the Watervilles and lasted the first, which was an awful inning, as no less than 19 Marathons were to bat, made eight hits, three of them two baggers, and scored 14 runs in the inning. This was too much for the St. John management to stand for, and Rogers was put on the bench as was the left fielder and the Marathons management loaned the visitors Sweet for a pitcher and Nelson for a catcher. This did not stop the Marathons from gaining runs, however, as Sweet's support was very bad. The visitors made 20 errors in the two games. The following is the box score of the game which tells the tale:

LANGFORD AND JEANETTE GO IS TONIGHT

New York, Sept. 4.—Sam Langford and Joe Jeanette, the negro heavyweight, will meet for the eighth time in an effort to settle the question of supremacy in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. They will box ten rounds under the auspices of the Madison Square Athletic Club.

Langford, who has beaten all the white hopes except Carl Morris, is getting ready to sail for Australia for seven fights, including one with Jack Johnston, but he thinks that by eliminating Jeanette, decisively, he will cross the Pacific with increased prestige.

HACK PROVES NO MATCH FOR FRANK GOTCH

Matside, Chicago, Ill., Sept. 4.—The wrestling championship of the world, which has been held in this town for 19 minutes and 50 seconds, to topple over Georges Hackenschmidt, who has thus twice failed to wrest the world's highest wrestling honors from the sturdy Iowan.

Gotch secured the first fall with a reverse body lock in 14 minutes and 15 seconds; the second fall required exactly 5 minutes 31.5 seconds. According to general comment Hackenschmidt entered the ring a beaten man. He looked a loser. Gotch supremely confident, was master of the situation at all stages.
