for Halifax.

Halifax Recorder: The steamer Rhodesian is shortly to leave the service of Pickford and Black, and her present sound run from Halifax to the West Indies is to be the final trip. The next voyage of the Rhodesian will be to England. She has been about two years under charter to P. and B., and while the ship's permanent successor is not yet known, it is learned that another boat is to be commissioned soon. The latter is the Uller, which has been

SHORT HANDED

The three masted schooner B. I. Hazard, which arrived at Portland, Me., on Wednesday morning coal ladden, made the run decidedly short handed, having only two men on board the captain, P. R. Knowlton of Deer Isle, and the cook, Irving Garland of Ellsworth, comprising the crew, the two men taking the place of the six usually carried, the skipper being unable to obtain the desired men at Port Reading, N. J., where she took on her cargo.

OROZCO WOULD AVENGE MURDER OF HIS FATHER

Pascual Orozco, Jr., who recently was advanced to the rank of general of brigade in the Mexican army for service to the Huerta government, is said to have begged permission to return from Northern Mexico, where he has been fighting, and to go to Morelos or Guerrero to avenge the death of his father, Colonel Pascual Orozco, Sr., who is reported to have been shot by the rebel leader, Zapata, when the latter was forced by federal troops to evacuate Huautla, in the State of Guerrero.
