ACCEPTED POSITION

Chief of Police David Simpson has accepted the position offered him at Prince Albert, Sask., and has tendered his resignation to Commissioner McLeLlan, the same to take effect as soon as possible. Chief Simpson has made many friends during his stay in the city, who will regret his departure. During his incumbency he has compiled a police manual, which has been found of great value in the instruction of new men, and has installed an up-to-date method of keeping the records of police dogs. He will carry with him to his new position the hearty best wishes of his St. John friends.
