

UNIVERSAL Heating Pad

Drugs and doctor's bills are things all wish to avoid. The "Universal" Electric performs invaluable service in warding off and relieving suffering. Use it as a preventive of winter ills—as a pain reliever—as a daily bed-warmer.

$13.50

Anywhere in Canada.

UNIVERSITY'S- 11-17 King St

Leather Lined and Coupes Dropped Promptly

WREN, LIMITED Manufacturers 111 St. John, N. B.—Box 702.

Shingles

Over the ordinary slate surface exceeding moderate. We will be pleased to have our order.

LTD., St. John, N. B.

Read-Cut HOUSES

GREGORY, LTD. Stage is cut away down, giving you complete, ready to set up, with which can be accomplished in a few days.

GREGORY, LTD.

ELECTRIC IRONS, $4.75

ELECTRIC CO. CONTRACTORS 81 "URMAN ST."

and Machine Works, Ltd. and Machinists.

Phone West 598. G. H. WARING, Manager.

BETTER WAREHOUSE FLOORS

Hardwood floors are easier to clean, will stand a lot more trucking than soft wood, and now when you can buy the No. 2 grade at $55 (cash with order) are inexpensive. Let us show you this grade.

Cash or credit. Phone Main 1893.

The Christie Wood-Working Co., Ltd.

186 Erin Street

COAL

American Anthracite, All sizes. Springhill, Reserve, George's Creek Blacksmith, Kentucky Cannel, A wonderful grate coal. R. P. & W. F. Starr, Ltd. 48 Smythe St., 153 Union St.

CABINET COLLEAGUES AND CITIZENS TENDER BANQUET TO HON. MINISTER OF MARINE

Besides Being Testimonial of Admiration and Respect to Mr. Lapointe It Was Also an Occasion for Celebration of Premier King's Victory—Premier in Speech Reviewed Political Situation from Liberal Standpoint.

Quebec, Feb. 21.—Fellow citizens and cabinet colleagues tendered Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Marine, a banquet at the Chateau Frontenac here tonight. The speakers beside the guest of the evening, were Federal Prime Minister, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King; Hon. Jacques Bureau, Minister of Customs and Excise; Hon. Dr. Bland, Minister of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, and Premier Taschereau of Quebec.

The banquet, besides being a testimony of admiration and respect for Mr. Lapointe, was also a celebration of the victory of Premier King and his party in the recent Federal elections. Quebec, Feb. 21.—Premier Mackenzie King declared the occasion was one of exceptional rejoicing to the Liberals of all Canada, for they were celebrating the victory of Dec. 6 and especially the part played by the Liberals of Quebec Province in achieving that victory. They were there to affirm their resolve to take up the work of Government in Canada where Laurier left it in 1911, forgetting the differences and divisions and remembering only the heroisms and the sacrifices of the intervening period, to strive in the spirit of his example, with unity towards none and goodwill towards all to restore the days of a prosperous, contented and united Canada.

In Mr. Lapointe, Quebec had a worthy successor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. If they accepted a Liberal administration, they would have a worthy successor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. If they accepted a Liberal administration, they would have a worthy successor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

He placed above all else the supremacy of Parliament and the recognition of the cabinet as a committee of Parliament, responsible to Parliament and through Parliament to the people. The House of Commons, recently dissolved, was a selected rather than an elected body, and on the Government side it had the most subservient following that had ever assembled in a Federal Parliament. Whenever it was not occupied in considering amendments to hastily and ill-devised legislation of previous sessions, it was being employed night and day in hurrying through, with a little opportunity of discussion, possibly, measures of far-reaching importance and appropriations of public monies running into hundreds of millions of dollars. It was due to this cause, more than to any other, that they had on their hands today railway and other problems of such colossal proportions and commitments to public representation that were without parallel in their history.

Parliament Must Know. The Premier said that he believed an important step in the direction of recognizing the responsibility of Ministers to the people's representatives in Parliament, had been taken in restricting the allotment of portfolios to members occupying seats in the House of Commons. It might be that time and occasion might necessitate some elasticity in the exercise of this practice, but there should be little doubt that the opposing practice had operated in recent years to free the government from that strict accountability to Parliament, with respect to the work of several departments which the House of Commons was entitled to have, and that errors alike of omission and commission, had resulted in legislation through the absence of sufficient and sometimes any information with respect to the most urgent and important matters.

Composition of House. Touching on the composition of the House of Commons, the Premier stated that, although they had been able to form a Liberal administration and thereby avoid any possible repetition of the costly compromise and expensive expedients of coalition, they must never lose sight of the fact that the adherence of their principles and policies, and in their conflicts with Tory opposition, they were assured only of the independent political support by a body of members larger than the Tory opposition, who had not felt they were free to identify themselves with their party in either France or the administering of the Nation's policies. If they were to have national unity in Canada, they could not afford to permit the citizens of any part of the country to feel that their interests and views were not given the fullest recognition in all matters of legislation, such a circumstance might prove the most menacing factor to the great purpose of Confederation itself.

"I did not believe that any problem could be satisfactorily solved in the long run on any basis of coalition. I believed then, and am more strongly convinced today, that what Canada needs is a Government sufficiently strong in its personnel and policies to be able to carry on without make or shift in any direction, but, while I was unwilling to compromise with Western sentiment on a basis of coalition, I was ready in the formation of the Government, and shall ever be ready, to recognize Liberal opinion in the West, or in any other quarters of the Dominion, whenever it is prepared to proclaim itself as such. I believe that the difference between ourselves as Liberals, and many of our Progressive friends is a difference in name and not in aim, a difference in affiliation but not in political principle. Since it has not been possible to effect coordination in Cabinet Council of the forces opposed to Toryism, we must strive the more earnestly to ensure in the House of Commons a merited co-operation in the making of the country's laws."

Criticized Late Gov't. Concluding this portion of his speech, Prime Minister King criticized the late Government in that it had communicated to party organs, in the form of inspired despatches, matters of public concern of which the people's representatives in Parliament were justly entitled to first knowledge. One of the many troubles of the late administration was that most of its acts were done in the wrong way, at the wrong time, in the wrong place, instead of legislating in the open, on the floor of Parliament, the significant parts of the most important enactments of which Parliament was expected to express approval, not infrequently took the form of edicts already drafted in the secrecy of the Council Chamber and proclaimed as orders-in-council. Members of Parliament were daily denied the information they were entitled to seek, while the Press of the country was surfeited with accounts of the government's proceedings as a part of perpetual propaganda, in which members of the Government and the Press were playing continually into each other's hands, if not, also, into each other's pockets.

Adopting the principle that Parliament was the place to make known the Government's policy, the Premier declared that this must be his apology for not attempting to satisfy public curiosity by any pronouncement of Government policy on the important subjects to be discussed in the approaching session.

Asks For Patience. He had only one request to make, that the public and members of Parliament would give due consideration to the very limited time which members of the new administration had to familiarize themselves with the important matters demanding attention. "If the problems with which we are confronted," concluded the Premier, "are to be successfully solved the Government must resolutely refuse to be speedily or precipitated into any course of action of which there has not been opportunity for mature consideration or deliberation. We are paying the price today for just that kind of behaviour, the hasty enactment of ill-considered and ill-digested legislation, some of which has placed a burden upon the Government which it will have to carry through the years to come. We seek no unnecessary delay. All that we ask is that we be not obliged to take any step which may occasion any delay in the carrying on of our work along which it may be difficult to return. Our aim is a united, a prosperous and a contented Canada, that which we have been striving for in the past, recommitment not re-orientation will be our program."

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its use is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years

THE CENTRAL COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY

Col. E. J. Sunder At Canadian Club

Late Officer of Indian Medical Service Spoke on "Recent Constitutional Developments in India."

"Recent Constitutional Developments in India," was the subject of an address delivered by Col. E. J. Sunder, late of the Indian Medical Service, before the Canadian Club assembled at luncheon at Bond's last evening.

In view of the present unrest and very critical situation existing in India today, the speaker's address was a timely one and commanded great attention.

Doctor Sunder who spent some thirty years of his life in India and was thus well versed with the conditions prevailing there, attributed much of the trouble to the overbearing and arrogant treatment of the natives by the Anglo-Indians. British rule, he said, was far from being just, and had it not been for it India today would still be plunged in almost the same undeveloped state in which it was when the East India Company established its first posts there, and that the country would be plunged into continual strife, through the warring of wars by the numerous small native kingdoms, one against the other.

Under British rule, however, law and order had been established, and the power of avaricious landowners and tyrannical rajahs restrained by the strong hand of the Viceroy of India and his government.

Banks had been established, roads constructed, and railways built, and trade so encouraged that the country had made great strides. The railway system of India, Col. Sunder said, tottered over a thousand miles, owned by the government but placed under company control, two-sevenths of the profits of banking of the Indian company and the rest being turned over to the government revenue.

In referring to the great Indian leader of the day, Gandhi, the speaker said he was a fanatic who possessed great control over the masses in India. His doctrine was the boycotting of all things European, and would not counsel violence, as the shedding of blood was against the tenets of his faith.

Col. Sunder was of the opinion that wide heads and cool counsel would prevail in India, which with the sympathetic handling of the situation by the authorities, would overcome the difficulties of the day and serve but to strengthen as never before the ties of attachment between the Indian Empire and the Mother Country.

U. S. Refuses To Abide By Agreements. Paris, Feb. 21.—French aviation circles are expressing astonishment at the United States' definite refusal to adhere to the international aviation convention. The question came up at an aviation conference at Monaco recently but a definite reply has been only lately received to the effect that the United States cannot adhere to the international convention about aerial navigation because this convention is the result of the activity of the League of Nations.

It appears the convention was signed Oct. 10, 1919, by twelve Powers of which the United States was one of five accorded preferential standing.

of public concern of which the people's representatives in Parliament were justly entitled to first knowledge. One of the many troubles of the late administration was that most of its acts were done in the wrong way, at the wrong time, in the wrong place, instead of legislating in the open, on the floor of Parliament, the significant parts of the most important enactments of which Parliament was expected to express approval, not infrequently took the form of edicts already drafted in the secrecy of the Council Chamber and proclaimed as orders-in-council. Members of Parliament were daily denied the information they were entitled to seek, while the Press of the country was surfeited with accounts of the government's proceedings as a part of perpetual propaganda, in which members of the Government and the Press were playing continually into each other's hands, if not, also, into each other's pockets.

Adopting the principle that Parliament was the place to make known the Government's policy, the Premier declared that this must be his apology for not attempting to satisfy public curiosity by any pronouncement of Government policy on the important subjects to be discussed in the approaching session.

Asks For Patience. He had only one request to make, that the public and members of Parliament would give due consideration to the very limited time which members of the new administration had to familiarize themselves with the important matters demanding attention. "If the problems with which we are confronted," concluded the Premier, "are to be successfully solved the Government must resolutely refuse to be speedily or precipitated into any course of action of which there has not been opportunity for mature consideration or deliberation. We are paying the price today for just that kind of behaviour, the hasty enactment of ill-considered and ill-digested legislation, some of which has placed a burden upon the Government which it will have to carry through the years to come. We seek no unnecessary delay. All that we ask is that we be not obliged to take any step which may occasion any delay in the carrying on of our work along which it may be difficult to return. Our aim is a united, a prosperous and a contented Canada, that which we have been striving for in the past, recommitment not re-orientation will be our program."

of public concern of which the people's representatives in Parliament were justly entitled to first knowledge. One of the many troubles of the late administration was that most of its acts were done in the wrong way, at the wrong time, in the wrong place, instead of legislating in the open, on the floor of Parliament, the significant parts of the most important enactments of which Parliament was expected to express approval, not infrequently took the form of edicts already drafted in the secrecy of the Council Chamber and proclaimed as orders-in-council. Members of Parliament were daily denied the information they were entitled to seek, while the Press of the country was surfeited with accounts of the government's proceedings as a part of perpetual propaganda, in which members of the Government and the Press were playing continually into each other's hands, if not, also, into each other's pockets.

Adopting the principle that Parliament was the place to make known the Government's policy, the Premier declared that this must be his apology for not attempting to satisfy public curiosity by any pronouncement of Government policy on the important subjects to be discussed in the approaching session.

Asks For Patience. He had only one request to make, that the public and members of Parliament would give due consideration to the very limited time which members of the new administration had to familiarize themselves with the important matters demanding attention. "If the problems with which we are confronted," concluded the Premier, "are to be successfully solved the Government must resolutely refuse to be speedily or precipitated into any course of action of which there has not been opportunity for mature consideration or deliberation. We are paying the price today for just that kind of behaviour, the hasty enactment of ill-considered and ill-digested legislation, some of which has placed a burden upon the Government which it will have to carry through the years to come. We seek no unnecessary delay. All that we ask is that we be not obliged to take any step which may occasion any delay in the carrying on of our work along which it may be difficult to return. Our aim is a united, a prosperous and a contented Canada, that which we have been striving for in the past, recommitment not re-orientation will be our program."

Adopting the principle that Parliament was the place to make known the Government's policy, the Premier declared that this must be his apology for not attempting to satisfy public curiosity by any pronouncement of Government policy on the important subjects to be discussed in the approaching session.

Asks For Patience. He had only one request to make, that the public and members of Parliament would give due consideration to the very limited time which members of the new administration had to familiarize themselves with the important matters demanding attention. "If the problems with which we are confronted," concluded the Premier, "are to be successfully solved the Government must resolutely refuse to be speedily or precipitated into any course of action of which there has not been opportunity for mature consideration or deliberation. We are paying the price today for just that kind of behaviour, the hasty enactment of ill-considered and ill-digested legislation, some of which has placed a burden upon the Government which it will have to carry through the years to come. We seek no unnecessary delay. All that we ask is that we be not obliged to take any step which may occasion any delay in the carrying on of our work along which it may be difficult to return. Our aim is a united, a prosperous and a contented Canada, that which we have been striving for in the past, recommitment not re-orientation will be our program."

Adopting the principle that Parliament was the place to make known the Government's policy, the Premier declared that this must be his apology for not attempting to satisfy public curiosity by any pronouncement of Government policy on the important subjects to be discussed in the approaching session.

Asks For Patience. He had only one request to make, that the public and members of Parliament would give due consideration to the very limited time which members of the new administration had to familiarize themselves with the important matters demanding attention. "If the problems with which we are confronted," concluded the Premier, "are to be successfully solved the Government must resolutely refuse to be speedily or precipitated into any course of action of which there has not been opportunity for mature consideration or deliberation. We are paying the price today for just that kind of behaviour, the hasty enactment of ill-considered and ill-digested legislation, some of which has placed a burden upon the Government which it will have to carry through the years to come. We seek no unnecessary delay. All that we ask is that we be not obliged to take any step which may occasion any delay in the carrying on of our work along which it may be difficult to return. Our aim is a united, a prosperous and a contented Canada, that which we have been striving for in the past, recommitment not re-orientation will be our program."

Adopting the principle that Parliament was the place to make known the Government's policy, the Premier declared that this must be his apology for not attempting to satisfy public curiosity by any pronouncement of Government policy on the important subjects to be discussed in the approaching session.

Asks For Patience. He had only one request to make, that the public and members of Parliament would give due consideration to the very limited time which members of the new administration had to familiarize themselves with the important matters demanding attention. "If the problems with which we are confronted," concluded the Premier, "are to be successfully solved the Government must resolutely refuse to be speedily or precipitated into any course of action of which there has not been opportunity for mature consideration or deliberation. We are paying the price today for just that kind of behaviour, the hasty enactment of ill-considered and ill-digested legislation, some of which has placed a burden upon the Government which it will have to carry through the years to come. We seek no unnecessary delay. All that we ask is that we be not obliged to take any step which may occasion any delay in the carrying on of our work along which it may be difficult to return. Our aim is a united, a prosperous and a contented Canada, that which we have been striving for in the past, recommitment not re-orientation will be our program."

Backache

Backache is the outstanding symptom of kidney disease. Women often make the mistake of attributing other causes and overlook the derangement of the kidneys until serious developments have made it difficult to obtain permanent relief.

This letter points to a treatment which has been so thoroughly tried and proven so effective in the great majority of cases that you cannot afford to overlook it when cause arises for its use.

Mrs. Albert Brunet, R.R. No. 1, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the past two months, having been afflicted with kidney trouble. I used two doctors' medicine previous to this, without any good result. A friend told me to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and the second box made me feel a good deal better. I have now used about six or eight boxes, and am completely relieved."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

SLICK CROOK TRIMMED CLERK

Raised Ten Dollar Bill to Twenty, Made Purchase and Received the Change. The local merchants should profit from the recent experience of a north end storekeeper and be on the look-out for bank notes, the denominations of which have been raised. This merchant told a story yesterday of a $10 bill being raised to the denomination of $20 and passed as such in his store on Monday night.

The fake $20 note was tendered to a clerk in the store by a man who made a purchase there and disappeared before the bill had been scanned closely. This note was cleverly disguised, being raised by the process of pasting the "10" from a $2 bill over the first figure on the $10 bill. At first glance, the note had all the appearances of the figure it was supposed to call for, and was certainly a clever deception.

Should this episode prove to be the first of a series of such, about to be practised throughout the local stores by an organized band of crooks, operating for that purpose, it would be well for the merchants to keep their eyes open for evidence of this practice.

MAKING FIGHT FOR PRISONER'S LIFE

C. H. Vernon of Truro Goes to Fredericton Today to Appeal Against Decision. The scene has shifted in the fight for the life of John Paris, the young negro who is anxiously awaiting the death cell at the county jail the word that will free him from the hangman's noose which, should the law take its course, will encircle his neck on the 30th of March.

G. H. Vernon, K.C., of Truro, N.S., is expected to arrive in the city this evening on a return to Fredericton, where he will appear before the appellate division of the Supreme Court to appeal against the decision of Mr. Justice Chandler, who sentenced Paris to be hung for the murder of little Sadie McAuley.

A Stabbing Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a weak but sure cure for coughs, colds and chesty matters. It is a simple and effective remedy for the most common ailments of the throat and chest.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 5/8 ounce of Pinex into a 16-oz bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified butter, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get 16 ounces—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.00. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated extract of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "5/8 ounce of Pinex" with full directions for use. Don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Finex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Figures From Chief Inspector

John B. Hawthorne Takes Exception to Remarks Made by Clergyman and Says Act is Enforced.

While in the city a short time yesterday, John B. Hawthorne, Chief Liquor Inspector, took occasion to comment lightly on some extravagant remarks made by a pulpiter orator of this city Sunday. The Chief Inspector resents any imputation, from any source, that the Prohibitory enforcement is lax in this province. He has an unbounded faith in his deputies, and personally keeps in close touch with every part of the province, and knows that conditions are as near ideal as honest, conscientious work on the part of officials can make them.

Chief Hawthorne gave a few court statistics to substantiate his claim that there was much less drunkenness during 1921, the first year of his regime, than in 1920, the last year of his predecessor's office.

In the City of Montreal there were 200 less arrests in 1921 than in 1920 for drunkenness. At Chatham there were 64 arrests in 1920, and only 21 in 1921. Other court records, he says, will show a corresponding decrease.

This is proof positive, thinks the Chief, that his official staff is doing its duty and by its activity has been able to keep down the sale of liquor at least one half as compared with the year 1920.

DESK DIARIES—MEMO BOOKS

Only a limited number of Desk Diaries remain in Memo Books. Our comprehensive range anticipates every requirement from the small paper-bound style to the handsome, durable loose-leaf book in solid leather binding. Come in and have a look at them.

ARMSTRONG & BRUCE

103 Prince William Street. Phone Main 477.

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

Only the Strongest British Companies. ARMSTRONG & BRUCE, 103 Prince William Street. Phone Main 477.

Movie Beauty Gains 10 1/2 Pounds in 22 Days through IRONIZED YEAST

Another startling evidence of Ironized Yeast's value as a weight-builder! In a test conducted under the supervision of a registered physician, Miss Dorothy Byrne, pretty artist, model and movie beauty, gains 10 1/2 pounds—in only 22 days! Miss Byrne's measurements, taken before and after the test, are given below.

A striking example—yet by no means an exceptional one. For it is not at all unusual for thin, nervous, over-worked or run-down folks to gain five pounds and more on the very first package of Ironized Yeast!

Results in Half the Usual Time! Ordinary yeast vitamin preparations have in many cases been known to bring good results. But thousands now know that Ironized Yeast, the scientifically correct vitamin tonic treatment, brings results often in just half the usual time!

One reason for this marked superiority is that Ironized Yeast, besides containing just the right amount of all three essential vitamins, contains a type of yeast which has positively no equal as a reconstructive agent—a yeast which is cultured expressly for medicinal purposes, and which is entirely different from the yeast found in ordinary "yeast tablets."

Yeast Best When Ironized But even more important than this is the fact that this yeast has been ironized—or treated through a scientific process with a special form of easily assimilated organic iron, similar to the iron found in spinach. When yeast is ironized in this manner it is found that results are not only more permanent, but are secured just twice as quickly!

Watch the Quick Improvement You will certainly be amazed at the quick improvement IRONIZED YEAST shows in you. Note how it immediately increases your appetite and how quickly you begin putting on good firm flesh. See how quickly pimples, blackheads, etc., disappear and how your newly acquired "pep" makes hard work or play a pleasure instead of a task. Try IRONIZED YEAST today! Pleasant to take—will not cause gas or in any way upset your stomach. Special directions for children.

Money Back Guarantee IRONIZED YEAST is sold at all drug stores on a positive guarantee that the first package will bring satisfactory results—or your money instantly refunded. Or mail coupon for the amazing Three Day Free Trial Treatment. In either case you do not risk a single penny to learn of the wonderful benefits Ironized Yeast holds for you. Get it today!

FREE You simply will not believe what a wonderful improvement Ironized Yeast can bring in you until you try it. Mail coupon below for the amazing Three Day Free Trial Treatment. Then watch the results!

Warning! Due to the marked superiority of Ironized Yeast it is being widely imitated. Ironized Yeast is entirely different from ordinary combinations of yeast and iron—or yeast and iron taken separately. There is only one genuine Ironized Yeast. Insist upon it always—for nothing else can be like it.

IRONIZED YEAST TABLETS

WEEKLY CONCENTRATED VITAMINE TONIC. Sole Representatives: Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Free Trial Coupon Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd. 10 McCaul St., Toronto, Dept. 33. Please send me the famous THREE DAY FREE TRIAL TREATMENT of Ironized Yeast.

Name: Address: City: Phone: Only One Trial Package to a Family

Delicious in the Cup "SALADA" TEA

is "Pure to a leaf"

"Be Sure You're Right" Then go ahead THAT'S MIGHTY SAGE ADVICE. When you ask your druggist for a bottle of Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil for that cough.

BE SURE YOU GET Dr. Wilson's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil (The Kind With the Yellow Wrapper) 35c. the Large Bottle. BRAYLEY DRUG CO., LTD. ST. JOHN, N. B.

Desk Diaries—Memo Books. Only a limited number of Desk Diaries remain in Memo Books. Our comprehensive range anticipates every requirement from the small paper-bound style to the handsome, durable loose-leaf book in solid leather binding. Come in and have a look at them.

ARMSTRONG & BRUCE, 103 Prince William Street. Phone Main 477.

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

Only the Strongest British Companies. ARMSTRONG & BRUCE, 103 Prince William Street. Phone Main 477.