Dear Sir. — I have suffered for fifteen mouths with Chronic Rheumatism, and could not find any relief, after try ng every medicine that I saw advertised to cure it, until I was told about the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have used three bottles of this valuable remedy, and now can say that I am another man to what I was. I would advise anybody sufferi g with this terrible disease to to try it, and see if it does not de the same for them that it did for me.

Charles has red hair and a freckled face, and although the young lady treated him courteously when If a man really wants to find out what's he called at the house she had her mind made up that she could never wed a redheaded m: n. After an acquaintance of three weeks he asked her to become Mrs. Per rin, and was greatly taken down when she told him that she couldn't think of such a thing. Charles then sought to have the old folks put in a good word for him, but they declined to interfere. He continued his visits, perhaps hoping to soften the girl's heart, but Thursday evening the crisis came. He went to the house with a bottle of acid in his pocket, prepared to spoil her beauty if she did not give him a favorable answer. There was no one at home but the girl, and her mother, and Perrin first wanted the girl meaning of "ante" and "pass the buck."
