Ayer's
Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, so considered by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy, it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

a permanent home, where every manufacturer can exhibit and sell his goods, and every patentee can show his invention; a centre of industry which will prove of vast benefit to the whole country.

For this purpose, the Legislature of the State of New York has granted a charter to a number of our most wealthy and respectable merchants, and those gentlemen have purchased no less than eight blocks of the most valuable land in the city of New York. The building to be erected will be seven stories high (150 feet in height) surmounted by a magnificent dome, and will cover a space of 22 acres. It will be constructed of iron, brick and glass, and made fire-proof. The bonds which are all for $20 each, are secured by a first mortgage on the land and building, and for the purpose of making them popular, the directors have decided to have quarterly drawings of $150,000 each; this money being the interest on the amount of the whole loan.

Every bondholder must receive at least $21, but he may receive

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

FREDERICTON, March 6.

Mr. Barker introduced a bill relating to stray cattle.

Mr. Keans committed a bill to provide for the establishment, maintenance and management of Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Mr. Davidson in the chair. The mover dwelt on the importance of the measure and the history of former efforts in St. John to secure the enactment of a measure of a similar kind. The present bill has had a very careful consideration by the Sessions, and provides for the setting up of Reformatories singly, or Reformatories and Industrial Schools together. Counties may erect buildings which are to be approved by the Lieut. Governor, and the institutions are to be under the control of five Directors, to be appointed by the Sessions from amongst the magistracy. The Government is to contribute, by direction of the Legislature, a part of the funds necessary for the maintenance, but the burden of the maintenance is to fall on the County. The children of drunken parents or vagrants, who are now allowed to run wild and become criminals, may be sent to these institutions, where they will be under the care of proper persons, and be visited and instructed by clergymen of the creed, as near as can be ascertained, of the several children's parents, and power is given to the trustees to apprentice such children out under certain circumstances. He thought there was a general public appreciation of the necessity of the measure, and that its principle was unquestioned.

Mr. Burns said the bill was an important one and required most careful consideration. He was glad it provided for the religious instruction to the children, and presumed that when the discussion had been had the mover would have progress reported in order that members might read it carefully and be prepared to consider its several sections intelligently.

Mr. Fraser referred to the fact of children being sent to the penitentiary and jails from the Courts, and going thence worse than when they entered them, and felt that Mr. Keans was doing good service by introducing the measure.

Mr. Covert was glad the bill had been printed and laid on the desks of members so that it could be well understood. He thought all bills should be so submitted. Mr. Burns' suggestion, relating to repor ing progress, was a good one.

Mr. Crawford commended the practice of printing bills, and thought that two Justices, instead of one as provided in the bill, should commit vagrants and juvenile offenders. The principle of the bill was a good one. The Judges had often directed the attention of grand juries to the necessity of some such provision for taking care of youthful criminals, and he intended to give the measure his support.

Mr. Tweedie referred to the importance of the question, and the difficulty of dealing with youthful offenders, who, under the operation of the present law, are made criminals, where, by means of the provisions of this bill, they might become good citizens.

Mr. Austin spoke of the benefits of the St. John Industrial School, which had been quite extensive, though restricted for want of funds. He realized the need of this bill for the proper care of the children who go to jail and penitentiary, where they are made worse instead of better, and he hoped, after proper consideration as to details, it would pass.

Mr. Smith favored the bill and would vote for it, although he did not know that his County could avail itself of it, as it was erecting a Court House, etc., which entailed considerable expense. It could avail itself, however, of a Reformatory in some other County.

Mr. Fraser said it was a question as to whether one Reformatory for the whole Province would not be better than a number of such institutions. One would certainly be more effective than several would be, on account of the centralization of support.

Mr. Keans said he did not commit the bill with a view of having it agreed to at this sitting, but that it might be discussed and all the points raised considered with a view of improving it in any way possible.

Progress was reported with leave to sit again.

Mr. Cotterell committed a bill to incorporate Moore's Mills Union Church and Cemetery.

The Reformatory bill is made the order of the day for Wednesday.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Flewelling, who thought it probable he would be required to attend a Special Sessions on Tuesday next, at Hampton.

Mr. Ryan presented the petition of Joseph Robinson and others in favor of the Elgin Branch Railway bill.

The House adjourned until Monday morning.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

FREDERICTON, March 6.

Progress was made in the bill relating to Stipendiary Magistrates and lock-up at Madawaska.

The Moss Glenn Steam Ferry Co. Bill passed with an amendment requiring the Directors to be Stockholders. Attention was called, in the debate on it, to the fact that it only provides for $6,000 capital, and the suggestion made that a Government subsidy is expected for it.

From Saturday's Third Edition.

(Special Telegram to the Tribune.)

OTTAWA, March 6.

After recess last night the debate on the Pacific Railway was continued by Dr. Tupper, who made a speech of several hours duration. The principal objection he had to the policy of the Government was the large amount of money required to be appropriated for works which he considered were not required for the Pacific Railway.

He was followed by Masson, Holton, Geoffin and others.

The item passed with the understanding, expressed by Premier, that a full discussion would be allowed upon any amendment that might be moved when the item came up for concurrence.

The revenue of the Dominion for the last month was $1,782,700, and the expenditure $1,442,394.

THE ILLUSTRATED LIBRARY —OF— POETRY AND SONG:

Edited by
DR. J. G. HOLLAND,
Author of "Kathrina," "Bitter Sweet," etc.

FAVORITE SONG is a royal octave volume of over 700 PAGES, printed in the best style of the art, on the finest tinted paper, and illustrated with 125 thoroughly dainty and delicate engravings, FROM ORIGINAL DESIGNS, by the most eminent artists, together with fac similes of the original autograph copies of (200) famous poems.

The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought. What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the enchanting spot where—

"Maud Muller, on a summer's day,
Raked the meadows sweet with hay;"

One of those lovely New England landscapes, which the engraver has represented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns.

Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, is the illustration accompanying the "Song of the Brook," where the streamlet, dashing beneath the rustic bridge, goes chattering

"Over stony ways,
In little sharps and trebles,"

"Till lost by Philip's farm it flows,
To join the brimming river."

Altogether, this is one of the most charming and elegant books ever issued by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament for the parlor table; a valuable addition to any family library.
