

OTTAWA

Young Men's Christian Association.

Annual * Report

YEAR ENDED AUGUST 31ST, 1890.

In presenting a brief summary of the year's work—the first complete year in the present commodious building—the

ADVANTAGES

of possessing such a fine building with attractive and well furnished parlours and library, fully equipped Gymnasium and Baths, free Reading Room easily accessible meeting and class rooms, cannot be over-estimated.

They should do much to secure for the Association that sympathy and support necessary to the vigorous prosecution of its work, and the strengthening and development of its agencies along Association lines, and attract to its privileges and bring under its influence the young men of our City, for whose welfare the organization exists; and for whom it provides a place of resort where every effort is made to exclude encouragement given and opportunities afforded for the development of the fourfold man, the Physical, Social, Mental and Spiritual. Notwithstanding the

EVIL INFLUENCES,

DISADVANTAGES

which necessarily attend a change of Secretaries, the work shows satisfactory increase,

D
Secreta
Mr. Ed
become term of the ma
carried
M
Directo
Instruc
among

of the zation
ready e
other o
work fo
on com
active r

at whic
have be lines of

lately f
lessons
much a
propose

is largel
to fall a
Christia