PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

George Logan for a few days.

Hyman Hall on Tuesday evening, nicipal Chapter, and representatives Roll Department. about four hundred being present.

Mrs. Charlie Ivey is entertaining at her home on St. James street tonight after the Music Club concert in honor of the artist of the evening, Miss Eva Claire of Winnipes, who is her guest.

Mr. Archie D Cameron of Aigoma District and Mr. Coles of Fort William District and Mr. Coles of Fort William and Mrs. W. A. McCrimmon officiated over the tea cups, assisted by Mrs. spent a few days with Mrs. Dawson at Ralph Millar, Mrs. Campbell Fraser and Parkhill, after attending the meeting othe of the Masonic Grand Lodge in Lon-delightful litle supper party held in The home of Mrs. Charles E. Percy, honor of the Girls' Athletic Club of Tecumseh avenue, was the scene of a second year Collegiate Institute pretty reception yesterday afternoon. In in Toronto this spring. class, the hostesses being the women the living-room, where golden tulips members of the collegiate staff.

Mrs. Fred Phelps was a charming tea Mrs. Percy received her guests, wearing hostess yesterday afternoon, when she entertained a few of her friends at her home on Wellington. home on Wellington street. From a table centered with a lovely old-fashioned cluster of violets and freesias, acinths, the whole being lit with yellow and lit with candles. Mrs. McClary candles, above crisp tulle of the same candles, above crisp tulle of the same shade. Presiding over the tes table was Mr. Bilss Carman, the well-known Canadian poet, who gave a reading in the city a short time ago, spent a few hours in London yesterday in company with Mr. Peter McArthur of Appin. Mr. Carman was on his way to Sarnia, where he will give another of his delightful readings.

Mrs. Selma Mason of Windsor, provincial worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, was the past two months with their relatives in New York.

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Club News

Mrs. J. J. Tearney of Toronto is in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. W.

L. Underwood, 298 Wolfe street.

Miss Minnie Hodgins of Port

Miss Minnie Hodgins of Port

Minnie Party given at Wolfide to City. This circular is accompanied by another giving advice to prospective. Mother, O. E. S., another giving advice to prospective mothers, which will be distributed widespread throughout the city.

CRADLE ROLL SOCK TEA.

The women in charge of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of a Sunday School have conceived of a sunday School have conceived of a sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday Sch It was an exceedingly delightful little tea at which Mrs. A. A. Campbell department. On Friday afternoon, they was the hostess, immediately follow- are entertaining at what they call a Mrs. Walter Thomson, Richmond ing the regular meeting of the 7th "Sock Tea," each guest having to bring the regular meeting of the 7th twice as many pennies as the size of her street north, is entertaining a few of her friends at the tea hour on Friday. A superior The grant of the regular meeting of the 7th Regiment Chapter, I. O. D. E., held on Tuesday, in the officers' quarters to take size 8, then her portion will be at the armories. The guests included but 16 cents, but should she take size The Lady Maccabees of the Forest the chapter members, the Municipal 10, she must pay 20 cents. It is ex-City Hive entertained at an enjoy- Chapter officers, members of the pected that by this means a goodly sum able dance and progresive euchre at nominating committee for the Mu-> from the nine different chapters organ-W. C. T. U. CLUB CONCERT. One of the clubs in connection with the local W. C. T. U. gave a very fine concert recently. Two excellent dra-matic skits were presented in addition

> Young, and Mrs. Strangeman. VICTORIA NURSES' ALUMNAE. Dr. Hale was the special speaker at others.
>
> The 7th Regiment Chapter has already paid over its first $1,000 installment to the Children's Hospital fund. Hospital Alumnae held on Tuesday night at the Nurses' Home, his subject being "The History of Surgery." Plans were made at this meeting towards the Ontario Graduate Nurses' convention

> > TRAFALGAR CHAPTER. The Trafalgar Chapter, I. O. D. E. has arranged to hold a sale of aprons, children's clothing and home-cooking some time early in April, this having been decided upon at the regular meeting of the chapter, held at the home of Mrs. Oram on Tuesday afternoon. At this meeting the chapter officially made Mrs. Drainey an honorary regent.

> > TALBOT STREET M. C. Talbot Street Baptist Mission Circles will meet Thursday at 3 p.m. in the school room of the church, when Mrs. Harry L. Stark of Toronto will give a talk on her trip to the world's Sunday school convention in Japan.

ASKIN STREET MISSION CIRCLE. Mrs. A. M. Hunt entertained the dian West, and when a subscription list was opened for the home at Wahstao, there was a generous response. Miss May Brown of the member of the special evening, which the two circles are preparing to give on March 22. Then revor was restlessly pacing ye ork streets Betty was speedor dher country home as fast as so train could carry her.

orning mail had brought her an ad letter from the Irish servant
which ungrammatically and longily stated that "the missus"

A wift, confused memory of all he

the senting mail had brought her an illuspy of letter from the Irish servant Katef shich ungrammatically and long-wind illuspy stated that "the missure short, starting with unseeling state that "the missure short, starting with unseeling was the state of the theory of the short where Aunt Marion will be all at sixe and sivens we are without back at the Bed Cottage, for "shure" it is all at sixe and sivens we are without back at the Bed Cottage, for "shure" it is all at sixe and sivens we are without back at the Bed Cottage, for "shure" it is all at sixe and sivens we are without back at the Bed Cottage, for "shure" it is all at sixe and sivens we are without back at the Bed Cottage, for "shure" it is all at sixe and sivens we are without back to me the Bed Cottage, and the short where we are wanted at the best of the short where we had a little sone of the the best short the great short where the short where the best short the great short where the short where Address News For This Column The Editor of Woman's Page.

BURGESSVILLE W. I. The regular meeting of the Burgess-ville Women's Institute wil lbe held at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) Johnston on Thursday afternoon, March 10, when the district officers are expected to be pres-ent. A social hour will be spent at the close of the meeting.

ELECTED OFFICERS

rs. R. J. Easson New Regent Stratford Daughters of Empire.

Stratford Daughters of Empire.

STRATFORD, March 2.—At the annual meeting of the Municipal Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire this afternoon officers were elected as follows: Regent, Mrs. R. J. Easson; first vice-regent, Mrs. A. C. McLeod; second vice-regent, Mrs. J. A. Barron; secretary, Mrs. J. P. Murray; treasurer, Mrs. M. A. Powell; educational secretary, Mrs. M. McIntosh; organizing secretary, Mrs. J. C. Makins; Echo secretary, Mrs. H. Morrow; standard-bearer, Mrs. George Kay.

LETTERS OF GRATITUDE

Western Ontario

No! When the price of Red Rose Tea was reduced its quality was not changed one particle.

The price of Red Rose Tea is a little more than other teas but the extra quality makes it more economical and more desirable to drink.

DON'T THROW YOUR OLD CARPETS AWAY

The Famous VELVETEX Rugs

SEND FOR VELVETEX LEAFLET.

CANADA RUG COMPANY. CARLING STREET.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

To secure a contented spirit, neasure your desires by your for-unes, not your fortunes by your lesires.—Jeremy Taylor.

me have the creeper pattern she like it strongly flavored. How lovely this world would be if there were only more like Thistle! Next time I write I will try to be some help. Wishing you and the Boxites all kinds of Ans.-If patterns are sent in I shall forward them. Have placed your name on list for a sachet, in case Thistle sends

I use topacco water, putabout two quarts of boiling water. When it becomes cold, I dip the plant into the water about three times daily. Pour boiling water over some manure; after it is cold water the plants several times with it, and this will give your plants blooms in a short time. I am sending pieces of cotton for Thistle, and please, Miss Grey, may I have one o But please send me one when they in. I am inclosing a shinplaster for S. C. H. fund. JONQUILL.

for H. F. your request and send pattern.

Seven Years' Sadness. Dear Miss Grey,—I have just been reading Seven Years' Sadness' letter, Street Mission Circle at her and as she asked readers to criticize, I nome, Gerard street, on the occasion of am doing so, as a big sister. Realizing cent novel, and then you feel that you he March meeting. Nearly 50 mem- yours is not an easy lot, and that you bers assembled to enjoy the splendid program prepared by Mrs. S. Thomas and her committee.

Miss Pearl Hibs read the Bible lesson, and Mrs. J. S. Barnard told stories about the commencement of missionary work in the Northwest. Mrs. J. Cottam work in the Northwest. Mrs. J. Cottam and the children, bring them up to spoke of the present needs in the Canadan West and when a subscription list.

Dear Miss Grey and Boxites,-May I it must be a year or more since I poor me feel so very homely and igcalled. First of all, Miss Grey, please tell Aren't we having a mild winter? Well, I haven't much to say, but as I am a real bookworm, I will tell you some of the 'Freckles," by Gene Stratton-Porter; "The Hoosier School Boy," by Edward Eggleston; "Chester Rand" and "Sam's Gladys. You write a very good hand. letter to your helpful Mail-Box, and as just begun. Will you let me come many others, I am coming to you for help. My daughter recites some and we find it difficult to find good pieces so thought perhaps we could get a few good ones through your columns, would later. It was very interesting, and I like them suitable for a girl between am quite sure every one enjoyed it. Thanks for dime. them as soon as possible. If any are sent, will try and copy them and return them if wished. My daughter has copied a few recitations which I will inclose. I also see where some ask for crochet pat-

to Miss Grey and all the Mail-Box.
PANDORA.

bought them from the seedsmen. If yo have any of the little sachets left would like to have one, and I will in eading the Mail-Box letters. Here one of my favorite recipes—just the thing for warm weather. Put 1 pint boiling water and 1 cup white sugar on stove. When sugar is dissolved, add 5 tablespoons of cornstarch which has been made creamy with a little cold water. As soon as the cornstarch is cooked, add the grated rind and juice of I am inclosing a shinplaster for S. tablespoons sugar and one teaspoon of C. H., and would like a sachet bag. cornstarch. I will close this time, sign-thought I would write again, although Dear Miss Grey.—I am coming again. and if you have a sachet to spare, would someone asked how to kill little bugs on you send it to me? Miss Grey, did you ead portiere? I got the portiere, didn't see my letter in print.

> Ans.—Have forwarded you patterns. am sorry you did not see your letter in

> Kitty Kelly-Thank you for sending in

C. H. fund. JONQUILL Dear Cynthia Grey.—A bad penny always turns up, doesn't it? But, now plants, also for "plaster" for our hos-

I couldn't keep away. (Blessings on thee, Ura Kidd!) Dear Miss Grey,]—I am an interested Has any one read "The Treasure of Heaven," by Marie Corelli? I think reader of the Mail-Box and enjoy the book discussion, also the recipes. Would you send me a sachet bag if millionaire who grows weary of so-Would you send me a sachet bag if there are any? Some reader offered a pattern for little boys' pants. My boy is six years old. I believe it was You feel that you are right there with who offered this pattern, but him. You cry with Tom o' the Gleam am not quite sure. Would be very grateful if she would be kind enough Bunce and Mr. Twitt. I know that to send it to me. Am sending dime for H. F. M. M. B. gus Reay and Mary Deane. And not Ans.—Am mailing sachet. Thanks only do you derive pleasure from this for dime. Possibly Clematis will see book, but you also learn many things your request and send pattern. which you may not have known be-measure up. He will want to after a I like Mary Roberts Rinehart's books.

taining, don't you think? Still, I wish her heroines were not so unusually enter your cosy corner? I have been to her heroines were not so unusually the Mail-Box once before, but I believe beautiful and intellectual. They make

I don't like Robert Chambers very tales, it takes the cake. books I have read this winter. I have I love Gene Stratton-Porter's books. read "Uncle Tom's Cabin," by Stowe; Didn't you love "Laddle" and the "Harvester" and "Freckles" and "The Girl of the Limberlost."

"White Fang" by Jack London is a Chance," by Alger, Jun.; also "Martha' wonderful story of men and animals, by the Day,,' and "What Katy Did at with that kind of ending which makes School," and the "Red Seal," by Lincoln, and "The Clansmen" and "Nancy, the Joyous." I like every one of those Curwood, and "The Shepherd of the books, and I have read some other ones, Hills" by Harold Bell Wright andtoo. Well I'd better go now. May I come oh, Cynthia Grey, won't you give me again?

GLADYS CANBEE.

Ans.—Certainly you may come again, I love and like and dislike? There, feel that I could go on forever dis-Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first cussing books. It seems to me I've

> P. S .- Inclosed please find dime. Ans.-Why not continue your letter

Dear Miss Grey,-I have been reading your page for some time, but neglected they will be of use to someone. They having lovely weather for February? need not be returned. With best wishes Ans.—If any recitations are sent in shall forward them to you. Thank you going to high school in December. Miss going to high school in December. Miss Grav will you please send me the muchgoing to mgm going I am very fond of all kinds of flowers, Ans.—Am mailing you pattern. Thanks but last spring I sowed at least ten dif-

THE CURIOUS PUP.
Part Thirty-One.

"March Wind, March Wind, won't you come to carry me back home. Oh, March Wind! Oh, March Wind!" again and again Nibbles called. Suddenly his voice got thinner and thinner, finally it disappeared altogether. Why couldn't he talk? Strange everything seemed to be going! There was a mist before his eyes, and he felt himself drowsy and uncomfortable.

"Here, little dog, what are you doing in my balloon?" asked a voice filled with surprise and with just a little anger in it.

Nibbles opened his eyes wide. Why it had all been a dream, the trip to Jack Frost Land, the little mayer and the tiny citizen, the cats on Stray Kittens' Island, March Wind and everything, Here he was in the balloon where he had failen asleep, He wasn't so very far from home either, so very far from home either, when the balloon man saw the surprised look on Nibbles' face he laughed; many that it the balloon had done, but then he remembered that it hadn't really, he had just dreams sometimes do come meanly the balloon had acted in his dream, so he lost no time in trying to get out of it. The balloon man and once more the little dog's feet were on firm ground.

You would have laughed had you seen Nibbles scurrying home. All thought of going out in search of adventure had left him. It was quite dark when he arrived at his home and the tiny citizen, the cats on Stray Kittens' Island, March Wind and everything, Here he was in the balloon had done, but then he remembered that too.

But dreams sometimes do come meanly the balloon had acted in his dreamed that, too.

But dreams sometimes do come meanly the balloon had hat, too.

But dreams sometimes do come true, and Nibbles thought of the true, and Nibbles thought of the was not true, and Nibbles thought of the true, and Nibbles stand had acted in his dream, so he lost no time in trying to get out of it. The balloon had acted in his dream, so he lost no time in trying to get out of it. The balloon had had acted in his dream.

New Millinery For the New Season

E VERY delightful phase of New Millinery Modes is interpreted with the artistry and originality that characterizes our present display.

For sport wear, afternoon occasions or evening social events, you will find here an unusually interesting collection for authoritative

Delightful new Spring Creations of unusual charm, priced

$6.95 $10.50

Announcing A New Department

We take pleasure in announcing the innovation of our Ladies' Dress, Department. A departure we feel assured will meet with an appreciative response from our London clientele.

We are now displaying new and authoritative modes in New Spring Frocks, including many charming models of Georgette, Taffeta, Charmeuse Satin and Serge.

We invite an inspection of our new department.

Royal Millinery & Fur Co. 246 DUNDAS STREET

Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets, you are not getting Aspirin at all. Made in Canada.

SAFETY FIRST! Accept only an "unbroken package" of genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," which contains directions and dose worked out by physicians during 21 years and proved safe by millions for Headache, Earache, Toothache, Neuralgia, Colds, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Lumbago, and pain generally.

Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents-Larger packages

million brothers

Cuticura So -The Healthy Shaving S

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Mono-accticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

